WALDECK COMMUNITY CHURCH

The Spirit That Builds Us.

Have you ever thought about how a building gets its strength? It's not in one single stone or beam, but in the way each part fits together, supported and strengthened by the others. That's what the Bible tells us about the Church—not just the local church, but the entire body of Christ. And at the center of it all is the Holy Spirit.

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."
Galatians 5:1

"Pastoral Perspectives"

The Holy Spirit isn't just a vague idea or some distant power. He is God living in us, working through us, guiding us step by step. He gives gifts, not for our own pride or comfort, but for the building up of the Church (1 Corinthians 12:4-7). He teaches, convicts, comforts, and empowers. Without Him, our efforts are just that, our efforts. But with Him, ordinary things become eternal works.

It's easy to think church happens only inside four walls on Sunday morning. But the Church is alive wherever God's people are, whether at a cookout, a revival, a Bible study, or a neighbor's porch. When we step outside our homes and into our community, when we join hands with believers from other churches, the Holy Spirit knits us together as one body. One Lord. One faith. One Spirit.

Maybe it's been a while since you've visited a neighboring church or stepped into a community event. Let me encourage you, go. Not as a stranger, but as a brother or sister in Christ. Every handshake and smile, every shared song or prayer, helps to build the Kingdom. Not ours, but His.

The Holy Spirit doesn't work through buildings. He works through people willing to move, willing to reach out, willing to love. If we want to see our church grow, not just in numbers, but in spirit, it starts when we allow the Spirit to move through us.

So, this month, let's step out. Let's show up. Let's be present. Whether it's at our own church gatherings or another church's event down the road, remember: we're not in competition, we're one body. And every time we come together, the Holy Spirit builds something eternal, for the glory of God.

May the Spirit guide you, strengthen you, and fill you with joy as you labor for His Kingdom.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Johnny R. Davis
