

JOIN THE JOURNEY ACROSS CANADA

Creating Awareness One Kilometre at a Time

Resilient Inuk and her husband Derek are hitting the road for a cross-country RV tour to raise awareness about Missing and Murdered Indigenous People (MMIP). This journey is about honouring lives, creating space for healing, and bringing awareness to communities across the country.

You can now follow the journey, see upcoming stops, and connect directly with me through the brand-new “RV Awareness Tour” section on my website:
