

THE Nutland Chronicles

SEASON 1
EPISODE 5
PART 1

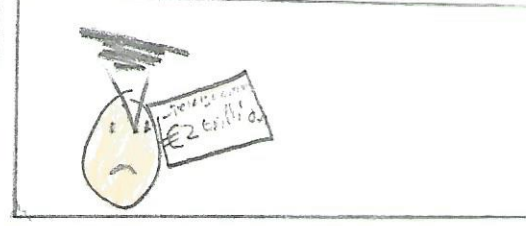

On the planet of Fridgia...

For the past few hundred years, a single corporation-turned-country has had a monopoly on all space exploration.

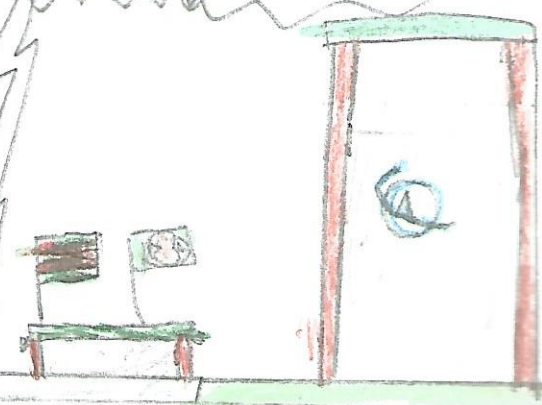

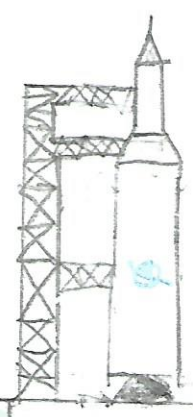

Charging zero surprises for SORP satellites...

Until now...
Melonia, ROW, 316 MA

Launch in T-30 minutes

This is an important moment! The first satellite launched with zero SORP involvement.

My fellow water melons, today is an extraordinary day! Today we end the monopoly of the treacherous, space Orange Corporation on the Fridgian Peninsula.

Hey! I wasn't finished with my speech yet!

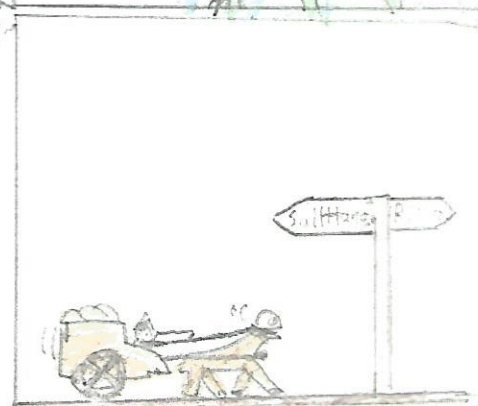

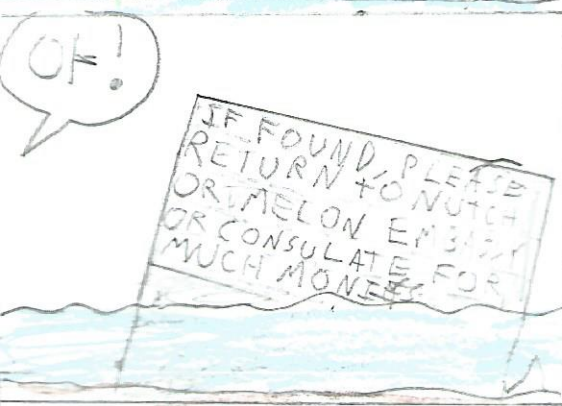

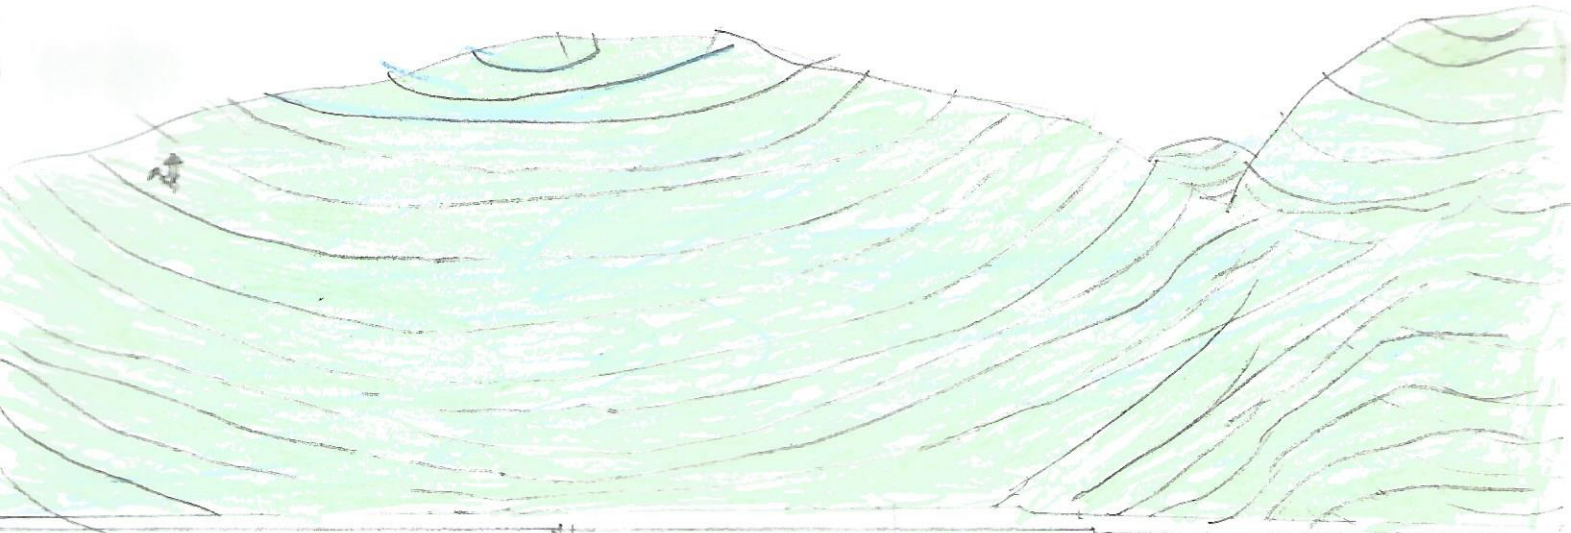

Don't worry! In about a year, we'll have the first non-SORP photos of Fridgia from space.

One Year Later...

Rice Field, Cropped, 317 MA

종지!

Where are you going? What is that?

It's a box that landed in my rice fields. It says, "Please Return to Nutch or Melon Emb-"

Let me see that!

I think I will be taking that to the embassy. Also, they are our rice fields.

But the Nutch Embassy is that way!

Melon Consulate, Ricra

Hello, how can I help you?

Hi! A strange box landed in my farm. It said to bring it here for Much Monies Yay! We've been looking all over Fridgia for that! Can we have it?

Um...

The military confiscated it.

NOOOO!

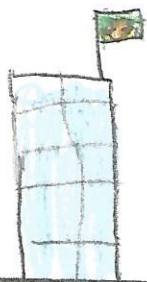

Quickly! try to contact the Cropean Government! We need that box!

Yes sir! Right Away!

Do I still get the Much Monies?

Um... You can get half

Meanwhile, at the Nutch Embassy, Wheatia.

Hello, this is the Nutch Embassy in Wheatia.

Yes, Hello!
This is the melon consulate in Ricia.

Since Nutland has a much better relationship with the Crop Country, do you think you could contact them to get the box with the space photographs back?

OK.
Beep Hello, this is the Nutch Embassy.

Hello, this is General Galy of the Cripean Army.

Hello. We were informed that you have taken possession of a box with pictures from space in it.

I'm afraid I don't know what you're talking about.

It was reported confiscated by the military at 3:00 pm Friday standard time in Ricia.

Ricia? That's under rebel control!

Rebel?

Yes! When King Corn Khan died with no heir, the north tried rebelling to gain power.

They will no doubt be impossible to bargain with, but good luck anyways.

Beep

Oh dear.

Later, in the Citrus Kingdom.

10 Juicing St., Citrus City

... And apparently it was the rebels in the north who took it!

Hmm. Well, from their perspective, the south are the rebels.

PM Finn

So maybe what we could do is offer to recognize them as the legitimate government of Cripea in return for the pictures.

But the north are a COMMUNIST DICTATOR-SHIP! We can't recognize them!

I say we go down there and take the pictures back, by force if necessary!

That's a good idea!

Hi, can we please have the pictures back?

No.

Please?

No.

We'll pay you twice the much money reward!

No.

Will you give it
to us for anything?

No. If you want it,
You come and take it.

Well, they've literally asked us to invade

Catherine's Flagship

Oh dear, that's quite a large invasion force.

(Bombs Away!)

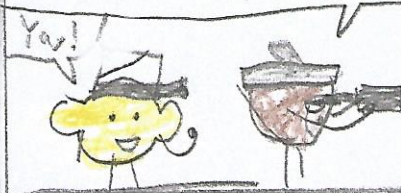

Full Broadside!

About a week later...

Look! They've capitulated!

We shall go negotiate the terms of surrender.

(Where's Commander Squirrelle?)

Injured, sir. She broke her leg when about 20 A-A guns fired on her Flagship. I am the Substitute Commander while she recovers.

Off we go!

Later...

We hereby surrender the city of Greater Ricia to the combined forces of...

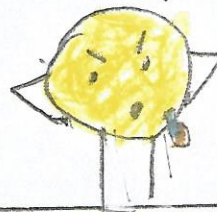

The Lebleu 8th Army and the Granta 23rd Army

Yes!

We won!

The Cheeseograpans?! When did they get here?

A Few minutes ago, apparently

Since you have surrendered, could you please tell us the location of the pi-

No, I don't think they will!

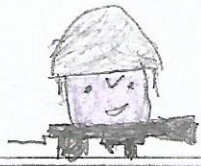

This city, along with the pictures, are now under control of the Cheeseograpan Empire!

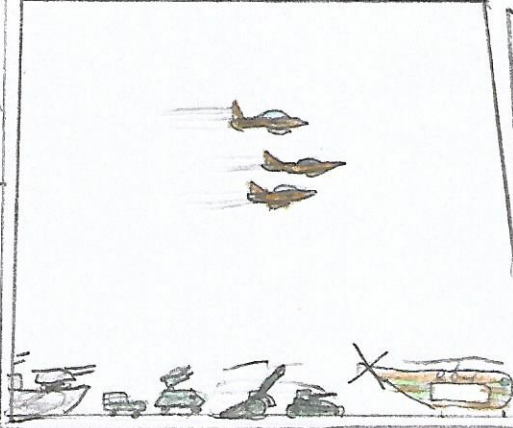

But I thought the pictures were in Oati- I've said too much!

But Outla will be ours as well, and there's nothing you can do to stop us!

But we have a better military...

Yes, but we have nukes. You don't want to start a nuclear war, do you?

Hmm, He has a point.

Then what do we do? Let them steal our technological milestones?!

Let's solve things diplomatically!

Well, the governments of Fridgia have been discussing the possibility of a world-wide organization for International Peace and Cooperation!

Right then! Let's go and tell our leaders!

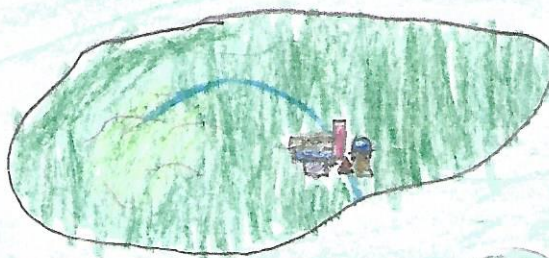

Did they just... Leave?

Ha! We didn't even have to do anything!

So can we have our city back now...

A Few weeks Later, in Blueberry City, Berryland...

Is everyone present?

President Carl's private jet has been grounded due to weather. He might not make it.

PM Finn

USCC Speaker

Emperor Butter

King Kongzilla

What about King Kongzilla III?

He should be here soon.

Hello!

We've Arrived!

POG Vinograd

POC Syr

Well, then. Now that the leaders of Cheeseland and Grapeland are here, we can begin!

Yes!

Agreed!

Wait a minute! You're trying to claim Cheeseland and Grapeland as separate countries so that you can have 2 votes!

Oh no! They're onto us!

The reason we're here today is to create an international organization to promote peace, food, rights, and democracy.

We have decided to call it the United Foods!

Cool!

Although we are the founding members, other countries can join whenever they choose.

So how will the voting work?

Hmm... Any ideas?

How about 1 vote for every country?

1 for each Government?

It should be population-based!

Two votes for each Food type!

Great Idea!

Now wait a minute! That's unfair!

All for!

50-6!

That's an 89% Majority!

This is rigged.

A week later...

Welcome back to another Meeting of the United Foods. Thank you to all of the representatives who showed up!

Now, today's debate will be on the Melo-Nutch planned attack on Oatira. UF Representative Protaz, you have been recognized to speak.

Thank you

As I am sure you all know, Insurgents in North Cropea have stolen our photos of the planet from space

This is an important technological advancement that has been robbed from all of us.

Objection! SORP did the same over 500 years ago!

Well yes, but SORP have been charging exorbitant fees for use of this tech.

Citrus representatives, surely you remember 25 years ago when Yolkly knocked out two of your satellites?

wait... That's right!

He STILL hasn't payed us $2T*

*not just for inflation

I move we go to Oatig and blast them to pieces until they give us the pictures!

Isn't that a bit wormongery?

Well, they did ask us too

Fair enough

I second that motion!

But...

Shh... it's all part of "the plan", remember?

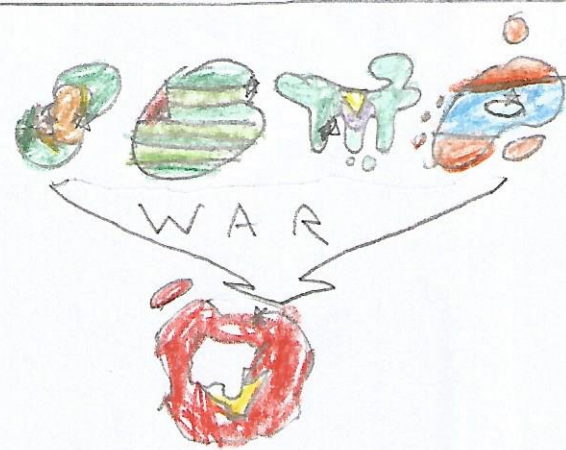

Oh, right

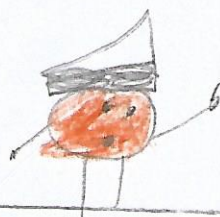

I think we will abstain from voting.

Right! That's 60-2! Tell the North Cropeans that WE DECLARE WAR!

Set sail for Oatia!

Do you find it suspicious that the cheeseuropeans are helping us?

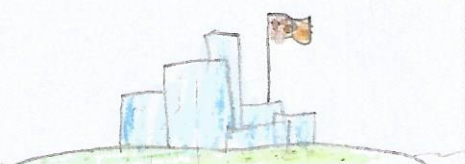

Yes! Even those so-called soap arent helping.

Oh well! Let's get going then!

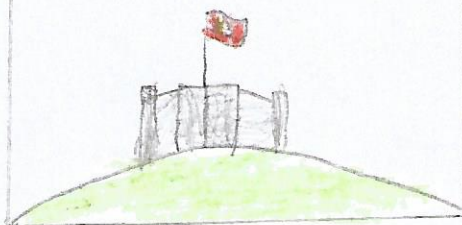

A few days later...

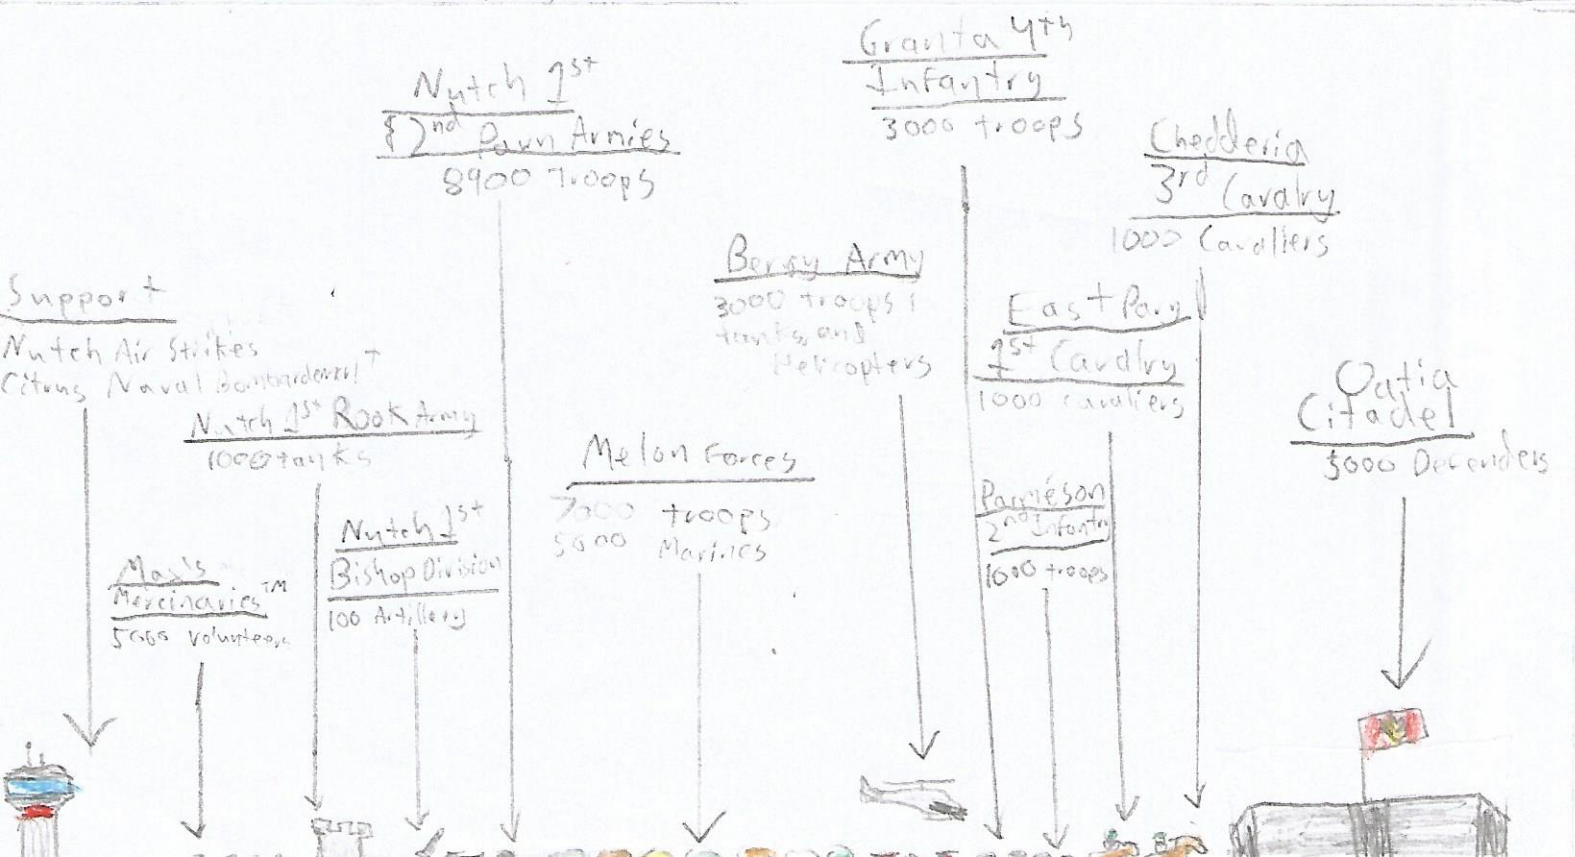

Oatia City was taken and a puppet Govt. was set up...

The armies marched on the citadel...

... And a historic siege unfolded...

A Few months later...

Hummm The oats are holding out for longer than expected.

We have plans for a team to infiltrate the citadel stealthily, and sneak out with the plans.

Ah, Excellent! I will assemble my best—

The Helicopter has been loaded and they will arrive within 3 hours.

Wait - You already started the mission.

Yes, n

Now how will we seize the pictures for ourselves?

we'll have to execute plan B

A few hours later...

OK, time to Go!
