Grapeland

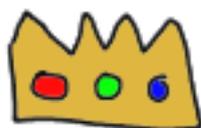

Our story starts in the Cheeseograpean Empire...

A land of grapes and cheeses...

Ruled by an evil* emperor.

King Kongzilla III!

*The Cheeseograpean Empire has had worse emperors, notably King Kongzilla Oth, who committed various war crimes against the apples, melons, citrus, and many other foods groups

The Cheeseograpean empire was divided into two states...

Cheeseland, whose president was Chedderal

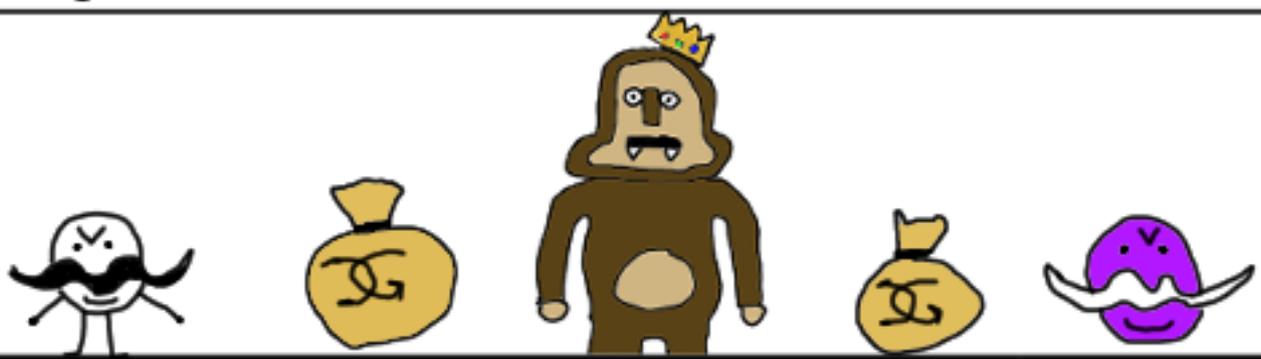

And Grapeland, whose president was Vineg

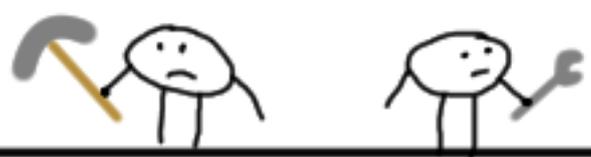

Kongzilla III, Chedderal, and Vineg all got along reasonably well with each other, until one day...

The economy was crumbling, so Kongzilla instructed Chedderal and Vineg to make citizens work more.

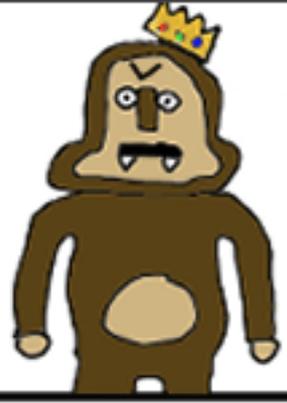

Chedderal did this by enforcing laws that required longer working hours

Vineg did this by improving working conditions, making people want to work harder

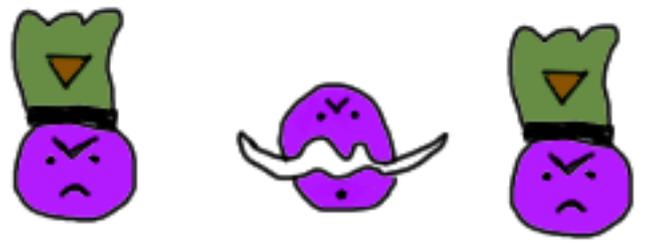

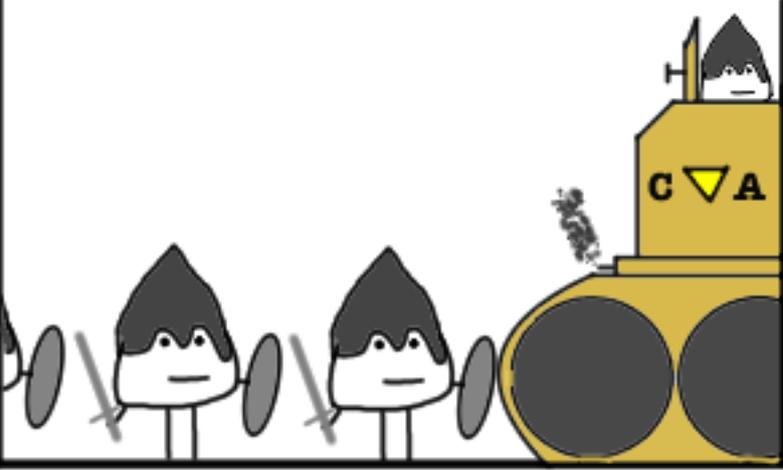

Kongzilla realized that this could lead to him losing power

So he raised taxes on grapes

Cheeseni troops were sent in to impose martial law

Rioting ensued, and Vineg organized a rebellion against rule by Cheeseland

That was stopped by Cheeseland's troops...

...Briefly

Eventually, the rebellion led to the Cheeseograpean Civil War.

Battle of Mozlet Island, 368-12
