Parenting Tips for home and everyday life.

INSTEAD OF ASKING, "HOW WAS SCHOOL TODAY?"

Ask, "What are you most proud of learning this week?"

READING & WRITING TIPS

- *When reading with your child, have him/her talk about the beginning, middle, and end.
- *Have your child help you write the grocery list.

BUILDING FAITH AT HOME AND EVERYDAY LIFE

"Let's look for ways to serve today."

Verse for the week

During the Fifth Sunday of Lent, we are reminded through the raising of Lazarus that with Jesus Christ there is always hope and new life. As we continue our Lenten journey, may our students learn to trust in Christ's power and grow in faith, knowing that God can bring light even in the darkest moments.

Year of Manners

Please speak to your children about manners.

“Speak about others the way Jesus would want you to.”

Teaching children to speak about others the way Jesus Christ would want them to helps them grow in kindness, respect, and compassion. When children choose words that build others up instead of tearing them down, they reflect Christ’s love and help create a more caring and faithful community.

LENTEN FASTING + ABSTINENCE GUIDELINES

Fasting: Catholics 18-59 years of age, who are in good health, are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On all the weekdays of Lent, the U.S. Bishops strongly encourage the faithful to participate in Mass and to observe a self-imposed fast. The law of fasting allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food in the morning and evening. Customarily, the two smaller "collations," when considered together, should not equal the main meal and ideally should be eaten only if needed to maintain one's strength. Abstinence: All Catholics 14 years of age and older are obliged to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday.

Wednesday, Good Friday, and all the Fridays of Lent, unless the Friday is a solemnity.
