Sunday, September 22, 2024 10:30 am

Since time immemorial, Indigenous peoples have lived on and cared for this land. We seek to rebuild right relations with the Algonquin Anishinaabe, to learn from them, and to live on their land with respect and gratitude.

Musical Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship: (together)

“Our souls wait for the Lord,
for God is our help and our shield.
Our hearts are glad in him,
because we trust in his holy name.
Let your steadfast love, O Lord,
be upon us now
even as we hope in you.
Let us worship God.” (from Psalm 33)

Hymn: 224 (vu) “Sing a Happy Hallelujah”

Gathering Prayer: (together)

Great God of goodness, we gather here this morning as your family in Christ. In all that we do together, may we feel your Holy Presence among us so we might go back into our everyday world restored and refreshed to live in Christ’s way. Amen.

Time with the Children

The Choir Anthem: “Getting To Know You”

Scripture Lesson: Luke 12:22-34. (page 847) “Jesus tells his disciples that “where your treasure is, your heart will be also.”

Hymn: 289 (vu) “It Only Takes A Spark”

The Offering is Collected

Sung Response (MV#191)

“What can I do? What can I bring?

What can I say? What can I sing?

I’ll sing with joy. I’ll say a prayer.

I’ll bring my love. I’ll do my share” x2

Dedication of Offerings

Pastoral Prayers and The Lord’s Prayer

Hymn: 232 (vu) “Joyful, Joyful”

Congregational Discussion: “Let Me Get to Know You”

PLEASE NOTE:

Next Sunday, Sept.29th, the hydro is going to be off from 8 am – 1 pm. Worship and Sunday School will go on as planned.

Awesome Autumn Market Donations

We are looking forward to our Awesome Autumn Market next Saturday, September 28th, from 9 to Noon.

If you can help us set up in the Social Hall, we'll be starting at 1 pm on Friday and we'll be around until 6 pm to receive your donations for the sale. We'll be accepting your donations on Saturday morning starting at 8am. The doors open at 9 am on Saturday.

Looking forward to a successful day to assist Almonte United Church in all we do.

Our Community Veggie Garden...

Our community veggie garden has been mostly readied for Autumn and the season that will follow! The tomato plants are still there with lots of green tomatoes. There is also one very small cucumber still growing on our Branje trellis. Please feel free to help yourself to the remaining fruits of our labours. Many thanks to all who helped bring this mustard seed of an idea to fruition. The donations of time, talent, reassures and terrain is all appreciated. This project cost nothing in terms of dollars because of the generous donation of lumber, plastic sheeting, stain, skills in design and carpentry, no cost soil, veggies and herbs donations, rain barrels and watering cans. Every contribution made this project a success. Thank you. See you next Spring.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
Monday, September 30, 2024
Reconciliation Through Art

Reconciliation Through Art coincides with the Nation Day for Truth and Reconciliation and will feature art, storytelling, and performances from local and Indigenous artists. Food will be available from the Frybread Queen.

This event on Monday, September 30, 2024, at the Mississippi Valley Textile Museum.

The day starts with a River Walk and Offering to the Water led by Tony Belcourt at 8:00 am.

Exhibits and education events take place throughout the day from 10:00 am to 8:00 pm. Starting at 8:15 pm, you will be treated to a musical “jam session.”

The full programme is available at <https://www.reconciliationthroughart.ca/>.

A special screening of WaaPaKe (“Tomorrow”) will be held on Sunday, September 29 at 2:00 pm at AUC. Dr. Jules Arita Koostachin’s deeply personal documentary unravels the tangled threads of silence suffered by residential school Survivors through truth, freedom and power. Admission is free ($10 donation suggested).
