OUR EXPECTATIONS OF EMPLOYMENT AT FUR BABY BARN:
We ask for availability monthly via email with an attached calendar to be filled out. It is requested back by a specific date, outlined in the email. We understand that these availabilities are not set in stone and you are able to update your calendars with open communication with our scheduler. However, if a schedule has been posted, it is the scheduled employee's responsibility to either find coverage for the shift, or to report to work for the scheduled shift if no coverage can be found. Our facility operates 365 days a year, weekends and holidays included! We care for living, breathing animals that require consistent attention and care. We schedule accordingly for ratio of people to animals in our care each day. It is imperative that these employment expectations are followed so we are able to maintain the upkeep and care that we pride ourselves on providing for all customers and fur babies in our care.
