

JUST IN TIME

TO UPLIFT, ENCOURAGE, MOTIVATE, AND EDUCATE FAMILIES "JUST-IN-TIME" AS WE JOURNEY THROUGH SURVIVING MURDER AND FINDING OUR WAY TO HEALING.

DEAR COMMUNITY PARTNER,

The Just-In-Time Initiative is reaching out, asking your organization to join a mission of healing and hope for families navigating one of life's most devastating experiences—the loss of a loved one to violence.

OUR STORY AND MISSION

The Just-In-Time Initiative was born from love and loss. Founded in memory of Justin D.C. Cosby and Kenneth K. Rackley, whose lives were taken too soon by gun violence, this organization exists to wrap arms around families when they need it most. The Initiative believes that in the darkest moments, no one should walk alone.

The mission is simple yet profound: to provide immediate, compassionate support to families who have lost loved ones to murder. The organization offers not just resources, but genuine care—a safe space where grief is honored, memories are celebrated, and healing can begin.

THE CRITICAL NEED

When tragedy strikes, families face an overwhelming cascade of needs that extend far beyond their emotional pain. In those first crucial weeks and months, they often struggle with:

- Unexpected funeral and memorial costs
- Lost income from time away from work
- Basic necessities like groceries and utilities
- Transportation to court hearings and appointments
- Access to grief counseling and mental health support
- Educational support for surviving children
- Legal expenses and advocacy

These practical challenges can feel insurmountable when families are already carrying the weight of unimaginable loss.

WILL YOU HELP US JUST IN TIME?

JUST-IN-TIME TO HONOR OUR LOVE ONES MEMORY
JUST-IN-TIME TO IGNITE THE LIGHT THAT WAS DIMMED
JUST-IN-TIME TO REMEMBER
JUST-IN-TIME TO PICK YOURSELF UP
JUST-IN-TIME TO INSPIRE

JUST-IN-TIME TO HOPE AGAIN
