FROM THE PRESIDENT, MARK KUBANCIK

We did it! Another successful KYANA Swap Meet is in the books, thanks to the hard work of you, our KYANA members. Despite the challenges of new construction and new workers with new responsibility, nearly all vendors reported brisk sales on Saturday. I spoke to one vendor who said that during the peak mid-morning hours on Saturday, it was all he could do keep up with people handing him money!

Seeing the new KEC buildings taking shape all around the current swap meet buildings made it clear to most vendors that things will change yet again next year. Again, most vendors I spoke with were understanding and willing to roll with the changes to maintain their presence at our swap meet. That bodes well for the future of the KYANA Swap Meet.

The Swap Meet succeeds thanks only to our KYANA volunteers. Your hard work, willingness to serve the vendors and attendees, and pleasant attitude brings people back year after year. Thanks again for your service and support.

This issue of The Sidelight includes news of several new events on the KYANA calendar. One such event, the National DeSoto Club's (NDC) 40th annual convention welcome dinner, is near and dear to me. You might wonder why you should care, since you don't own a DeSoto nor have interest in the DeSoto brand. What I know is that many KYANA members also belong to other marque clubs, such as the Buick, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Mustang, Lincoln, Thunderbird, Shelby, etc., clubs. I'm hopeful that some of you will follow in my footsteps and host your own marque club convention in Louisville. I'd be happy to share all the details of the NDC convention and volunteer to assist your efforts.

Every registered NDC convention attendee receives a goodie bag that includes a free AACA membership form, compliments of AACA HQ. I'm hopeful that by interacting with KYANA members, visiting our clubhouse, and seeing our vehicles, NDC members will be encouraged to also join AACA.

One of the benefits of belonging to an active local club like KYANA is the knowledge base of your fellow members. If you need some work done on your car, there's a good chance one of your fellow members has walked that path before you and has a good recommendation to offer you. All you need to do is ask. Here's a personal example to prove that point. The factory installed pinstripe tape on the left quarter panel of my '86 Parisienne was starting to separate from the panel. I asked KYANA member Matt Phillips for a recommendation of someone to remove the tape and paint the stripe to match. Matt has worked in the automotive paint industry his entire career and is highly respected by his peers. Matt shared contact information for Ray Jarrell; Ray is a one-person business who specializes in painting pinstripes for collision centers. After coordinating schedules and finding paint to match, Ray visited the house, removed the failing tape stripe, and painted a new stripe to match the rest of the car. It was a pleasure to watch a true artist at work. Thanks to Matt for the recommendation!

Ray, working his pinstripe magic

Remember, it is supposed to be fun!

KYANA EVENTS BY CHESTER ROBERTSON

Chester

KYANA has kicked off Spring 2026 in a big way, starting with the Salvage Yard Tour hosted by Mark Kubancik.

If you have never been on a salvage yard tour, it is a lot of fun looking for cars and parts and usually ends with a good meal and the opportunity for lots of car talk.

Some of the KYANA children got together for an Easter celebration complete with a visit from the Easter Bunny, sponsored by Bev Foster and Ruth Hill.

On April 12th we all met up at Big Springs Country Club for the Swap Meet Appreciation dinner, hosted by Jenni Mulrooney. A great time was had by all and we enjoyed an amazing dinner, including dessert! The dinner was made possible by all the hard work our amazing membership put in on the Swap Meet, making it a triumph of the group's ability to adjust to change in pursuit of a goal.

Unfortunately, unpredictable weather caused the cancellation of KYANA's first Cars & Coffee of the season on April 18th. Mark your calendar for Saturday, May 16th, the next one. Make sure you check out the information on local (and not so local) car events in the back of this issue of the Sidelight. If you know of a good event, send it to the editor by the 18th of the month for publication in the next issue. Her email is sidelighteditor@gmail.com.

I hope you all got a chance to go to World of Wheels at the Fairgrounds on April 18th and 19th. Jerry and Carol Bass sponsored it and there were great cars to be seen!

Thanks to the following families who worked extra hard to host these events: Bass, Foster, Hill, Kubancik, Mulrooney and Steinke. You too can get a shout-out - just sponsor an event for the club!

EVANSVILLE INDIANA DAY TRIP

Tuesday, June 16, 2026

Carol and I are sponsoring a trip to the Evansville, IN area on June 16th, 2026. The trip will include a return visit to LST 325, a WW2 transport ship and a trip to tour the Toyota Plant in Princeton, IN where I am currently assigned as an engineer for PPG Automotive OEM Coatings. A lunch will follow after the tours. The trip should take about 6 hours including travel time. The LST tour is scheduled for 10am CDT. The Toyota tour is scheduled for 1:00 pm CDT. Each tour takes about 1 hour. The cost of the LST tour will be $10 for each member. The Toyota tour is free. KYANA will provide $10 to each member for lunch. The rest of the cost for lunch is up to the individual member to cover.

Please contact me with questions or to let me know you are going!

As the sign indicates, properly identified service animals are exempt from this policy. Thanks for abiding by this long-standing policy aimed at keeping all of our members safe...

NATIONAL DESOTO CLUB CONVENTION

June 16th - 21st

In June, Pat and I are hosting the National DeSoto Club's (NDC) 40th annual convention in Louisville June 16 – 21. The host hotel for the convention is the Holiday Inn – Hurstbourne. We are planning for over 200 attendees from all over the US, Canada, and overseas.

With the Holiday Inn as our base, NDC attendees will take scenic driving road trips to both Shelby and Nelson counties. On Friday of convention week, we will ride busses to Churchill Downs for the “Daily Double”, touring the Derby Museum in the morning followed by lunch and live racing from the comfort of Millionaire’s Row. On Saturday, the DeSoto car show will be held at the KYANA clubhouse. The show is free for all to attend, though you must be a NDC member to show a DeSoto.

Wednesday June 17 – KYANA Meet & Greet

How does this involve you if you are not an NDC member? On Wednesday evening, June 17, the NDC has rented the clubhouse for a welcome dinner/ meet & greet with KYANA members. I’m encouraging all my fellow KYANA members to come to the clubhouse for a catered dinner (if desired), show off our local rides, meet and mingle with NDC members from far and near, and check out some of the DeSotos.

The welcome dinner event is planned to begin at 6:00 p.m. and last until 8:00 p.m., with dinner served at 6:30 p.m. The catered dinner includes a choice of red or white pasta, salad, garlic bread, dessert, and tea or water. KYANA member cost is only $15.00 per person. Again, dinner for KYANA members is optional. You are welcome to attend and simply show off your classic vehicle and share car stories with the NDC members.

If you plan to eat dinner with the NDC members, please send your payment of $15.00 per member payable to KYANA to me no later than June 10. This allows time for the caterer to prepare enough food for both convention attendees and KYANA members. Please call or text me with any questions: 502-797-8555

NORTON COMMONS 4th of JULY PARADE

KYANA is again invited to take part in the Norton Commons July 4th parade. Parade units will gather and line up at 9:30 a.m. in the parking lot of The Grand Senior Living Center located at 9300 Civic Way. The Grand is located just off Chamberlain Lane and can be accessed from several different streets in Norton Commons, including Chamberlain Lane. The parade begins promptly at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 4th. Please note that this is the same meeting location used for the past several years parades.

With America celebrating our 250th anniversary in 2026, this promises to be a grand parade. Let's turn out a big KYANA showing and join in the celebration by decorating our cars for this significant milestone. The Norton Commons parade committee encourages parade units to toss candy to the kids along the parade route, so bring along some goodies for the kiddos!

Please let me know if you plan to participate in this fun event.

THE FIRST V-8 by Steve Lippmann

WHAT WAS THE VERY FIRST FORD MANUFACTURED FLATHEAD V-8?

ANSWER: A LINCOLN Flathead V-8 engine.

The history of internal combustion V8 engines began with the first ones in France in 1902. For a long time - even nowadays, antique automotive enthusiasts have greatly revered the history of the famous Henry Ford-designed Ford flathead V8. It became a huge part of our developing car culture like for highways, motels, shopping centers, drive-in businesses, car-dating, popular music, and movies (e.g., Bonnie and Clyde), etc.

However, the very first Ford Motor Company fabricated flathead V8 engine was NOT a Ford-designed product: rather, it was a Lincoln flathead V8. This Lincoln engine followed a Cadillac-designed flathead version. Production of this Lincoln flathead began in 1920, twelve years before the 1932 more well-known later Ford flathead V8 was built. So, what about the flathead V8 stories of Cadillac, Lincoln, and Ford?

It all began with Henry M. Leland. In 1902, he founded the Cadillac car business at a past Ford factory in Detroit. That happened after Mr. Ford left his Henry Ford Company following disagreements with William Durrant, who originated General Motors and Chevrolet. Cadillac automobiles did well, developed a prestige advanced engineering reputation, and in 1909, the company was sold to General Motors to be their luxury car division. Along the way, Mr. Leland helped design the Cadillac V8 in 1915 – this engine was a flathead.

Together with his son, Henry M. Leland next started the Lincoln Motor Company in Detroit in 1917, initially making Liberty aircraft engines for World War I airplanes. They began by assembling them from parts made by other manufacturers including General Motors, Ford, Marmon, Packard, and more. Lincoln Motor Company began development of V8 engines in 1917 following a Leland engine design. They introduced their flathead 357.8 cubic inch V8 in 1920. It powered Lincoln Model L automobiles starting with the 1921 sales year.

Despite being a well-made luxury vehicle, the firm struggled financially. By 1922, they became bankrupt. That same year, Henry Ford bought Lincoln to incorporate it into his then new Ford Motor Company lineup. Together with Edsel Ford, his son, they wanted to enter the top-of-the-line automotive market to compete with Cadillac car sales at General Motors. That was beyond selling their less expensive, very popular Ford Model T's that were then powered by an inline four-cylinder engine.

Now that Ford Motor Company owned Lincoln in 1922, they began producing this Leland-designed, original Lincoln flathead V8. By 1923, it was improved by Ford with better cooling and substituted aluminum pistons instead of iron ones. Manufacture by Ford of this Lincoln-engine continued along with other engineering upgrades. In 1931, a brand new Lincoln emerged, the Model K; it had a V12 power plant.

Original Ford V8, 221-cubic-inch unit built in 1922, became classic hot rod powerplant.

Then in 1932, Ford Motor Company's own first version of a Ford-designed flathead V-8 was built and marketed. Displacement was at 221 cubic inches. This Henry Ford concept was a notorious engine, with its innovative cylinder and block being cast in one piece. It was powerful and fast; it became one of the most prominently remembered and favored engines in American automotive history and throughout the world.

A simple design left plenty of opportunity for improvement. It was produced first for the Ford Model 18, in lots of versions, different sizes, in several countries, and installed in cars and in trucks. The "Ford V8" and the "Flathead Ford" are its common nicknames.

Between 1932-1938, this new Ford V8 had 21 studs bolting two heads to the block. Later versions in differing displacements were built beginning in 1938, with 24 studs affixed to the heads. Mercury made a related version in 1939, and a smaller flathead was marketed in 1948. Manufacture of these engines ended here in 1953 and fabrication of them in Canada and Australia stopped the following year.

These famed flathead Ford V8s were very popular and remain one of the most prominent engines ever. The 1954 advent of Ford's overhead valve V8 engines marked the end of Ford flathead V8 production.

1902 - early V8 engines

1915 - Cadillac flathead V8

1920 - Lincoln flathead V8

1922 - Ford manufactured a Lincoln-designed flathead V8

1932 - Ford built their own Ford flathead V8
