CONDITIONS OF BOARDING

The Kennel Proprietors shall be entitled to retain possession of the animal after the end agreed period of boarding until payment in full of all boarding and other charges due.

The Owner will pay boarding charges (at the rates from time to time charged and notified by the Kennel Proprietors to their customers) for any period after the agreed period of boarding during which he shall have failed to collect the animal even though such failure may arise from the Kennel Proprietors having refused to release possession of the animal in accordance with the preceding condition.

At any time after the owner shall have failed for more than three months after the agreed period of boarding to collect the animal the Kennel Proprietors shall be at liberty to sell or in any other convenient way dispose of the same and apply any proceeds of sale or other profit thereby realised in payment of charges due to them but without prejudice to their right to recover any balance of such charges and to pursue other remedies.

The Kennel Proprietors may call a Veterinary Surgeon to the animal or remove the same to a hospital or clinic if in their own absolute discretion they consider this to be necessary and any charges so incurred shall be borne by the owner.

The Kennel Proprietors shall not under any liability to the owner for loss of life or injury or illness of the animal howsoever caused.
