Missing an Exam

If a learner is unable to attend their I-PATH exam due to illness, injury, or bereavement, please notify us as soon as possible. We do not provide refunds for any candidate who pulls out of the exam session. However, we will accept a video submission of the candidate's exam free of charge.

To apply for this video submission option, please email us within 10 days after the scheduled exam date, providing supporting evidence such as a medical or dental letter, or a letter from a relevant authority (e.g., a Head Teacher) explaining the learner's absence.

If a learner misses their exam due to exceptional circumstances beyond their control (e.g., severe weather or major travel disruptions causing significant delays in reaching the venue), I-PATH must be informed as soon as possible. These requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and our decision will be final.

We are unable to offer refunds for any candidate who withdraws from the exam session, arrives late and misses their exam, or fails to attend.

To contact the exams team, please email: exams@i-path.org.
