Aurene (Main Stage) and Amaturio Theaters: From the 3rd floor of the parking garage, use either the elevators or stairs to get down to ground level. Turn right towards 7th ave. keeping the theater on your left. You will pass a small curved driveway leading to a lot behind the theater. A short distance past this drive way is a pedestrian gate with a call box. Push the button, tell security you are with local 500, you will be buzzed into the gate. You will see the loading docks to your left, there is a small stairway on the right side of the docks. The door will lead you inside the dock area. Turn right, proceed down the long corridor. At the end you will see a freight elevator door with an office just to the right of it.

Aurene: The Stewards office is the door just to the right of the Freight Elevator Door. You will sign in and ask the steward for a parking pass for the garage. This pass has an expiration, usually longer than you will be working this one call. Saving you from this process every call.

Take your parking pass back to your car, following the same way you came into the theater and hang it off of your mirror so as to not receive a ticket.

Return to the theater and the backstage area so you can start working.
