From time to time, a truly special home comes on the market in Reynolds Lake Oconee - a home that immediately gets the attention of the Local Realtors and soon after that Clients are scheduling visits to come take a closer look.

This beautiful Lake Home located in the popular Howells Grove neighborhood is such a property. Mark Smith of Classic Smith Construction and his wife Kerri recently completed construction and now call this beautiful property home. However, if recent foot traffic is any indicator what the future might hold, they might not want to get too comfortable.

This rare Ranch Styled Lake Front Estate offers over 6000 square feet of living space and it is a masterpiece of design and craftsmanship. The finished product is remarkable...captivating... and breathtaking. Situated on an amazing 1.8 acre Lake Lot that offers incredible privacy, this Custom Home is a must-see for a discriminating Buyer looking for the finest of everything in
