

What is an Opera Studio?

Recently established as a non-profit, we take a studio approach to world class operatic vocal training, mentorship and personal development.

We provide students with all the resources they need to fully concentrate on their education and skill development in a safe and professional setting.

What does that mean?

- Students receive monthly financial scholarships with two-year contracts, that including lodging and food.
 - Ladies Home, and Gentleman's Home in SMA
 - Training, health and personal care, professional behavior
 - Cooking, family environment with wholesome values and strict house rules to adhere to
 - Classes: Repertoire classes, Diction classes in French, German and Italian, Voice lessons, Style lessons, Stage Movement Classes, Audition Preparation Lessons

Additional German lessons at Casa Europa

How else are students supported?

- Audition Preparation Lessons
- Registration fees paid
- Personal Support for Auditions Abroad
- Travel and expenses covered
- Competition Fees paid

How else are students supported?

- Masterclass opportunities
- Exposure to world class artists
- Being able to experience living the life of a professional artist, mentality and daily habits without having to worry about working a job etc.

How else are students supported?

- Participate in world class performance opportunities
- Earn income from their performance contracts
- Assistance in understanding contracts
- Network with some of Mexico's top performers, directors, conductors, producers etc.
- Gain real world experience
- Build relationships for their future

Who are the students?

- Mostly Mexican and Latin American youth, artists and musicians that have the talent, but not the resources or access to become professional opera singers.

How do you find them?

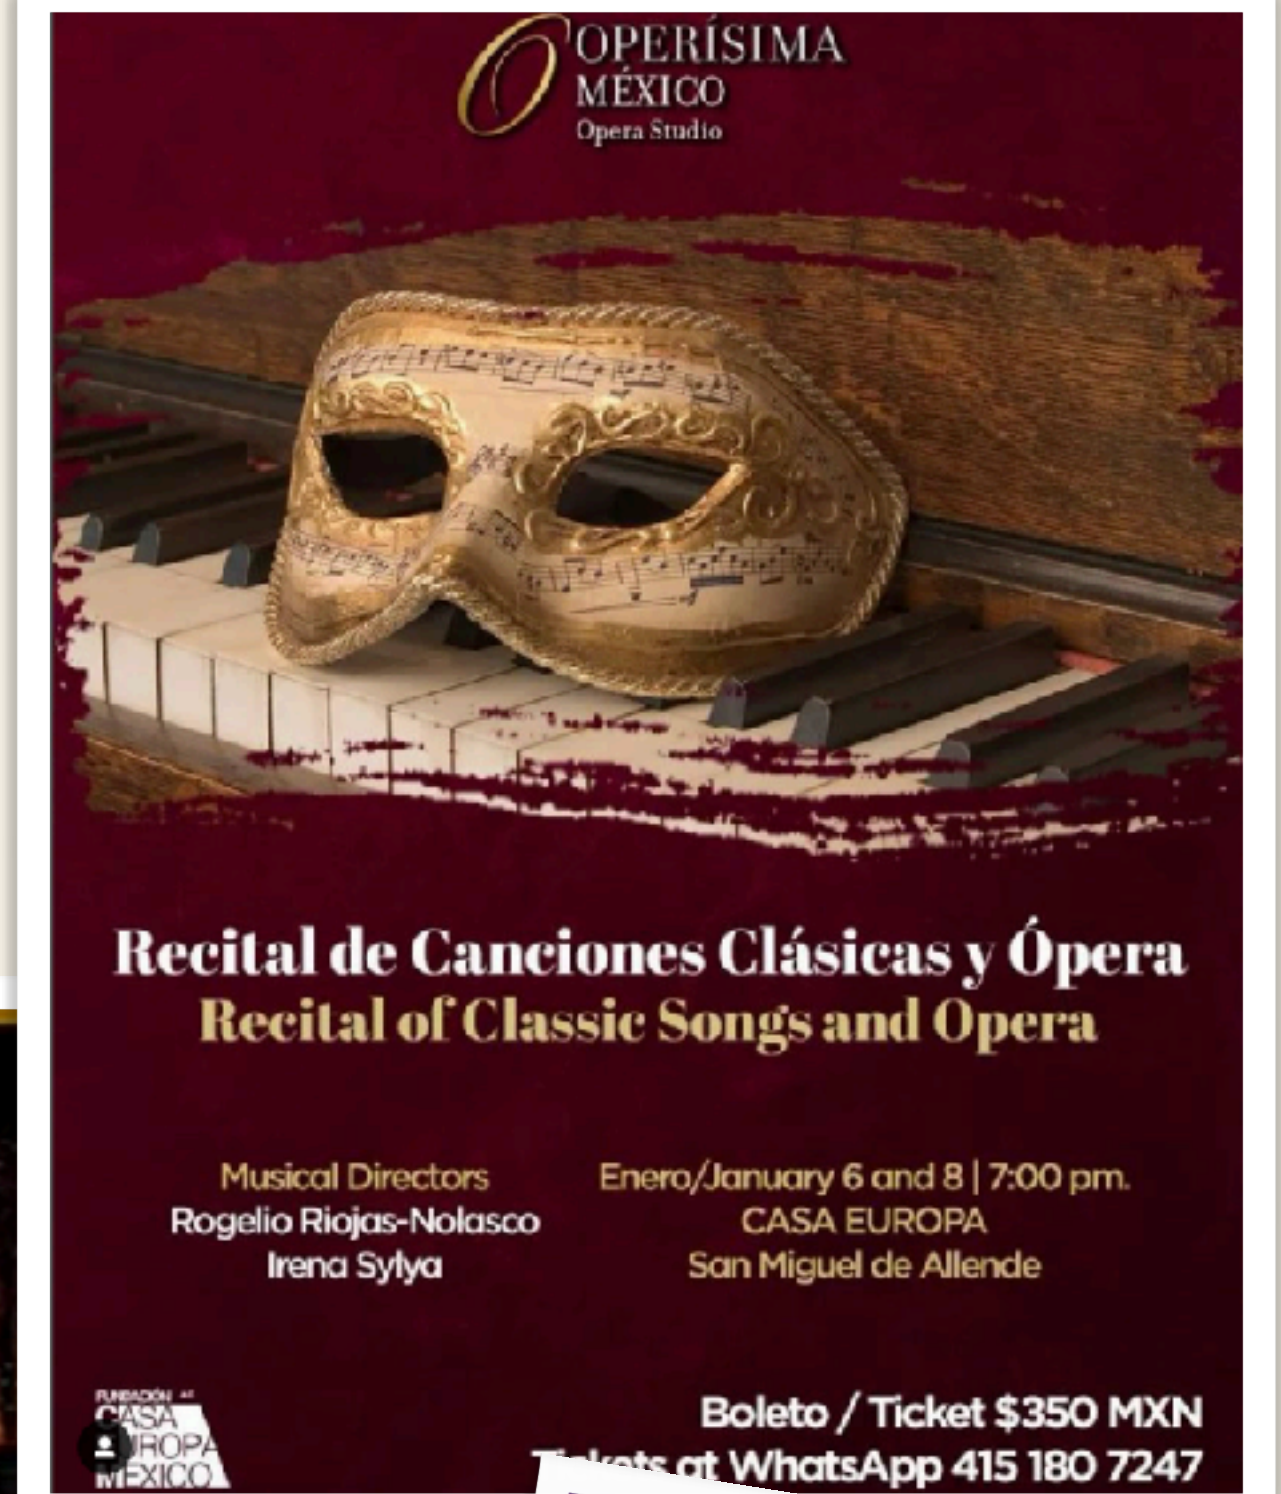

- Rogelio travels around Mexico looking for talent and holding classes and scouting
- People approach him
