Intentional Career Coaching

2020

MY STORY

2020

Over the past decade, I have worked in the staffing and recruiting industry. Breathing life and building confidence in others is a passion of mine. I love helping clients recognize, appreciate and own the value they bring to the next employer, while providing exceptional guidance in today's ever-changing job market. I have coached 1300+ individuals on resume writing and career coaching strategies to elevate their chances of "landing that sought after" job. Within weeks after working with me, individuals have experienced success by obtaining their new job or learned strategies for success to accomplish their career goals.

Aside from my role as a Career Coach, I have placed qualified candidates within exceptional organizations servicing diverse industries. My goal was to start a boutique firm that was client and relationship-building focused. A firm that reflected my years of unwavering customer service. This ultimately encouraged me to start Alexander Recruiting, LLC.

Outside of networking and meeting new clients, I spend my time being a wife to my husband of 13 years and raising our two active children. I enjoy a nice cup of coffee, saving fashionable images on Pinterest, and a good brunch on Sundays.

“

As an entrepreneur, you will face ups and downs in obtaining clients. Lindsay helped me prioritize what was important in my life and professionally. She has helped me look at situations in a more productive way, thus finding meaningful solutions, which allowed me to secure more clients. I am a more confident leader today because of the coaching I received from Lindsay.
