

Oh Infant Jesus, Son of our Lord

Who spreads special love and is widely adored
You brightened the world on the day of your birth
And many years later, saved people on earth

Many people had seen and followed the star
They came from all over, some traveled afar
All came to praise You, the young and the old
Some came with gifts, like frankincense and gold

All those who looked in the manger and saw
The little Lord Jesus were filled with great awe
The Blessed Mother Mary gave birth to God's Son
And Saint Joseph raised him, as God would have done

As He lay sleeping, on His small bed of hay
The people all rejoiced, He has come, praise the day
The shepherds, the angels, and the wise men of three
All came to gaze on the Savior to be

No one who came to the infant yet knew
All the wonderful miracles this child would do
He would heal the sick, and give hope to the poor
He would give all He had to His people and more

The Light of the World, the Savior is here
He will teach us and guide us and we'll have no fear
He will bring us a message, the word from above
And that message is simple, the message is love

Far up in Heaven, the joy of Christ rang
The angels were smiling and happy souls sang
Come hear the good news, they said with great joy
Praise our dear Lord and His new baby boy

God gave Him a message, His one only Son
To save all his people, to make them as one
He was sent down to help us and show us the way
So we may be part of God's Kingdom someday

The Infant Jesus came as God's Eternal Light
A light that shines forever, so clear and so bright
I will follow that light till the end of my days
I will worship my God and give him my praise

I celebrate His birthday at Christmas each year
A day that fills people with laughter and cheer
The presents don't matter, but I know what does
My Jesus, who will be, is now, and who was.

May we never forget that the little baby Jesus born in a manger
is the same precious Jesus who died on the cross.

Advent is here!

Our theme this year will be HOPE > FEAR. Can you imagine the fear Mary and Joseph faced as they served God? The new territory they were exploring - the changes to their lives? And yet their hope fed and nourished them throughout their physical and spiritual journey.

Advent invites us not simply to “be not afraid,” but to act with love in the midst of fear. Not to fix everything, but to show up with courage.

Let us believe, with trembling hope, that fear does not have the last word.
Because fear doesn't stop us. Love leads us forward.

Rev. Dr. Boyung Lee,

New stuff Alert!

1. Blue Christmas - Christmas can be lonely, sad, and stressful for many of us. Perhaps we miss loved ones, have financial or family struggles, or need healing. This service honors these realities. It is a powerful service

2. Acolytes! Once again, our confirmands will be acolyting - starting January 4th. Some of our confirmands have not been raised in the church, so please support them each Sunday. Thank them, tell them they did a good job, or let them know they are appreciated. It will make a world of difference!

3. Pledging - First Lutheran was founded in 1873. We have faithfully ministered to our community for 153 years. With 2026 just around the corner, we will be sharing HOPE this Christmas Season as we receive the greatest gift EVER from God.

Commitment forms for the 2026 estimate of giving will be available in early December (both in the office and on Sundays). Let's continue our steadfast Journey into 2026.

Northwestern Minnesota Synod

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

For everything there is a time and a season, as the writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us. For me the shift from fall to winter feels like both an ending and a beginning. We gather in the last of the harvest and assess the now past season of growing. Was it a good harvest or not? Was the weather against us or for us? Will it be enough to sustain us for another year? Either way we then enter a new season of preparing. While the earth sleeps and takes its rest we begin making ready for the next season.

The church is also in a season of change. Many congregations are experiencing a decline in attendance. Budgets are stretched thin. Leadership transitions, political polarization, and shifting demographics have left many churches wondering how much longer they can hold on.

And yet, even now, the Spirit is moving us forward into a new season. Young leaders are emerging. Congregations are finding new ways to live out their baptismal promises. People are hungry for community, connection, healing, and hope — the very things that the church offers best.

We believe the church is not in a season of decline — it is in a season of discernment in preparation for what comes next. This moment calls not for despair, but for devotion. Not retreat, but renewal. What's more, we do not do this work alone. God still calls us to be people of faith who face each new season together. We are calling this new season “Rooted and Rising.” Deeply rooted in our faith we are also rising to the challenges of a new season.

Sincerely in Christ,

Holy Faith

During the month of October our noisy offering collection was designated to go to the Humane Society of Otter Tail County. Along with the noisy offering, we collected donations of goods and held a pie in the face competition to raise additional funds. On Wednesday, November 19th, Chris Cannon, Executive Director of the Humane Society, joined us at WAFL to speak with the students about the great things happening at the Humane Society and to receive the donations. Chris also announced that the Humane Society had just received all of the funding to complete their building expansion!

Chris was also nominated to be the one to pie Missi in the face. After Missi received her pie in the face she challenged the WAFL students to also take a pie in the face. For every WAFL student that took a pie in the face an additional $3 donation was made to the Humane Society. In total Chris left with a van load of donated products and $532! This was a great congregational effort to support a great organization.

Thank you to everyone that donated and participated!

MERRY Christmas

Update on James

Freedom, Faith and a Future

Dear Friends,

Last Christmas, we introduced you to James—a man rebuilding his life after years of addiction, incarceration, and loss. At that time, he was working hard to stay sober, employed, and reconnecting with his young daughter, Olivia.

One year later, we are overjoyed to share how far James has come. He is three years sober and officially off probation—by the grace of God! He continues to work full-time, has maintained his own apartment, and feels healthier than ever after losing more than 50 pounds. Most importantly, James is now an active, loving presence in his daughter's life.

"Matthew House was God's blessing in my life. It gave me safety, stability, and people who believed in me. They didn't see my mistakes—they saw who I could become. They'll always be family to me."—James

James' story reminds us that hope, faith, and love can rebuild lives. The Matthew House isn't just a place to stay—it's where men find healing, dignity, and the foundation to start again. Each resident's success is made possible because of caring friends like you who believe in second chances.

This Christmas, as we celebrate stories like James', we invite you to help more men find freedom, faith, and a future. Your gift—no matter the size—makes it possible for Matthew House to continue providing a home where grace meets growth.

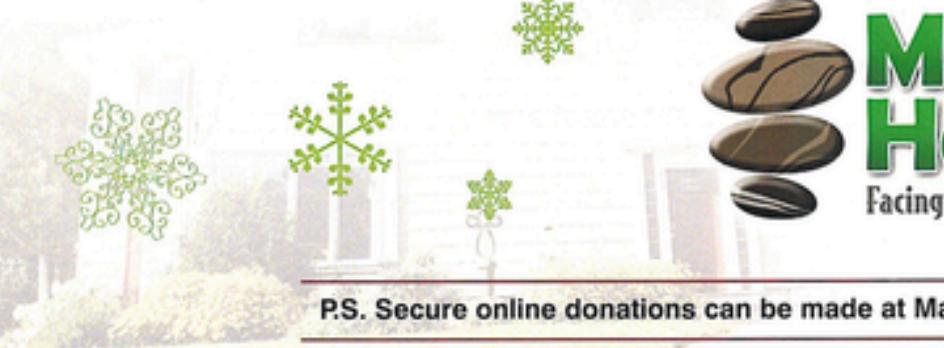

Thank you for your generosity and prayers. Together, we are changing lives, one man at a time.

With gratitude,

Todd Hylden

Worship and Music

Christmas music, carols and songs

Christmas without music would be unthinkable, and as carols and seasonal songs have evolved over hundreds of years, their melodies have come to evoke tranquillity and peace. In medieval times, the word 'carol' referred to a round dance with musical accompaniment ('carole' in French). It later developed into a song form of verses and a refrain.

Not all the original texts had Christmassy words but many were associated with Mary, Advent and Christmas. The term has since come to be applied to all Christmas songs, whether or not in carol form. Christmas Carols were introduced to formal church services by St. Francis of Assisi.

'One of the oldest printed English Christmas carols is the Boar's Head Carol, sung as the traditional dish is carried in on Christmas Day at Queen's College, Oxford; it was printed in 1521.' (Oxford Dictionary of Music)

Christmas carol fans will be pleased that they were not alive between 1649 and 1660, when Christmas carols were banned by Oliver Cromwell. He thought that worship should be solemn, and so Christmas was only celebrated in England by a simple service at that time.

'Silent Night' was written in 1818 by Austrian priest Joseph Mohr. He was told the day before Christmas Eve that the church organ was broken and would not be repaired in time for the Christmas Eve service, so he wrote a carol that could be sung by the choir and guitar.

The result - 'Stille Nacht'. English church musician W.H. Cummings adapted a theme from Mendelssohn's choral work Festgesang for the Christmas carol Hark! The Herald Angels Sing.

In a carol symphony, four movements are held together by one main carol and other carols are used for secondary themes. The first composer to write a carol symphony was Victor Hely-Hutchinson (1901-47), who was born in South Africa but lived in England for most of his life. His carol symphony begins with 'Adeste Fideles' followed by 'God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen', the 'Coventry Carol' and a touch of 'The First Nowell'. Finally, the symphony finishes with 'Here We Come A Wassailing' and 'Adeste Fideles'!

Greetings from your Parish Nurse.

Here we are into the season of giving. As I ponder what to give my family, I remember past Christmases of my youth. I don't ever remember a Christmas that I didn't receive the one thing I wished for. I wonder what it is like for others who don't have those memories and maybe there are no gifts under the tree. It leads me to remember the real gift of Christmas. Jesus! I pray that those who don't know him, will hear about his birth and the gift he will give us on Easter. I vow to continue to spread the good news of Jesus Christ and those that don't have gifts under the tree will have the gift of knowing him, which is the greatest gift on earth, I pray for peace on earth and good will for all men. If we were to be granted those two gifts, what a wonderful world it would be! SO, I hope all of you have peace on earth and share good will with all. God bless and Merry Christmas.

Jeri Wilmore, ParishNurse, FCN

Our Men's Fellowship Christmas Food Ministry will be assisting families experiencing hardship again this year. We are starting this a little earlier this year with the possibility of being able to help more families in need. In our outreach, we are partnering with the Battle Lake and Ashby schools and providing grocery gift cards for their local grocery store. We hope to assist 50 or more families.

To support this project please mail your check to
