

Good afternoon dance families,

Dixon Dance Studio is happy to announce our roll out of our new Zoom Schedule. We are ecstatic to be offering all of our classes. If you were enrolled in our current schedule, you have been rolled right into our Zoom schedule beginning today. Depending on the length of your class, tuition will be adjusted to accommodate the hours in which you take. If you are not interested in doing Zoom, YOU MUST drop all classes in order not to incur your monthly fees. Please understand that we all are very disappointed that the in-studio classes are cancelled, but we are excited to be offering them on Zoom. I hope that seeing each other in person has started a spark, that will continue until we open again. Your schedules will be emailed shortly. Please confirm as soon as possible! Yay! We're Dancing again!!!
