

Tuscaloosa Children's Theatre Acknowledgement of Code of Conduct

Congratulations on being cast in TCT's upcoming production! Participating in theatre is both an honor and a privilege. The artistic staff promise to work our hardest to ensure an excellent, professional production. We expect the same from the cast and crew. Please review these Rules of Conduct together so that parents/guardians and cast members all understand these expectations.

Rules of Conduct

It is understood that by signing this agreement, you will abide by the following rules and policies. The breaking of any of these rules may result in your dismissal from this production or from being cast in future TCT productions.

1. I will not engage in casual or excessive talking. I understand that rehearsal is working time and that when I talk to others, it disrupts the cast making it harder on them to work.
2. I will be courteous, respectful, and friendly with TCT staff, my castmates and volunteers.
3. I will use my time productively. I know when I am not working on a scene, I can be memorizing lines, reviewing stage blocking or reading materials related to the production. I could also be working on homework assignments, reading, or quietly keeping myself occupied in a manner that does not disrupt the work of the cast.
4. I will clean up after myself and others. I will not leave trash or litter in the rehearsal or backstage areas. If I do see trash, I will be a good TCT steward and throw it away.
5. Show week: I will obey all safety and conduct rules provided to me at the Bama Theatre. I will be quiet while waiting in the green room for my cues and I will pick up after myself. I will respect the play coordinators and volunteers by following all rules and instructions provided to me.

I am eager to do my part to create a great production!

I have read the rules, seen the rehearsal schedule and understand the policies of conduct for this TCT production.
