

Revelation Timeline (Abridged – full presentation at <https://alleluiachurch.org/bible-study> -1.Revelation Theory)

Whereas this book of Revelation is to be accessible to every culture throughout history, that have many different forms of reckoning time, and the chapter and verse distinctions aren't authoritative, having been added lately; This treatise is intended to show the linear progression of the events mentioned in the narrative, without relying on time-dating structures.

Without time references, the order indicators fall to the numbered Seals, Trumpets, and Bowl judgements. The events can then be organized accordingly, using scriptural references and word and phrase associations to group like with like events.

I make no claim to accuracy, this is presented for you to study and draw your own conclusions. I have endeavored to put my personal thoughts in () and things to be noticed in bold letters. Other topics are covered in the Bible Study, and are available on the website; they are in a blue hyperlink.

This timeline is presented, not as doctrine, but as a way to study the scriptures. It is said that there are over 800 allusions and references to the Old Testament in Revelation. Come, look and see that the bible is a single, coherent whole; written by about 40 writers over a couple thousand years, but inspired by a single author, who is outside of our time dimension. Telling “the end from the beginning” [Isa46:10]; is the signature and verification of God’s own hand.

Please share this with others as the time is short.
