

Martellaro Marble & Granite

Edge Profile Selections

Waterfall

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a rounded top-left corner and a straight vertical edge on the right, representing a waterfall edge profile.

Chisel - upgraded

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a straight top edge and a jagged, chisel-like edge on the right, representing a chisel edge profile.

Bullnose

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a rounded top-right corner and a straight vertical edge on the left, representing a bullnose edge profile.

Bevel

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a straight top edge and a beveled edge on the right, representing a bevel edge profile.

Ogee - upgraded

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a straight top edge and an ogee-shaped edge on the right, representing an ogee edge profile.

Eased

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a rounded top-right corner and a straight vertical edge on the left, representing an eased edge profile.

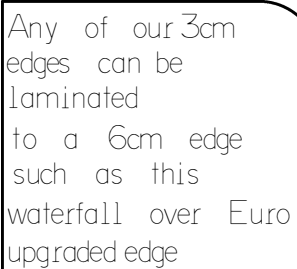

Heavy Eased

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a rounded top-right corner and a straight vertical edge on the left, representing a heavy eased edge profile.

Euro - upgraded

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a straight top edge and a Euro-style edge on the right, representing a Euro edge profile.

Any of our 3cm edges can be laminated to a 6cm edge such as this waterfall over Euro upgraded edge

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a rounded top-left corner and a laminated edge on the right, representing a laminated edge profile.

Laminated Edge - upgraded

A diagram showing a rectangular slab with a straight top edge and a laminated edge on the right, representing a laminated edge profile.