

United by Leaders

The world spins regardless,

No matter the conflict.

Only the truly dauntless

Take charge and interdict,

“We must stand united,

Free, virtuous, and true

Lest the world is benighted.

With proactive purview,

We need leaders.

In a forest of Cedars,

A great Oak standing tall.

A friend of many,

A comfort in the outside brawl,

It can truly be any,

With strong heart and view,

It can even be you.

David Dulin

Third Place Poetry

Chandler Sister Cities

2018 Young Artists and Authors Showcase

Grade 12, Hamilton High School