CAMP FAQ

Where will i sleep?

One of the best parts about camp is the chance for you to connect with the natural world around you, including where you sleep!

Cabins - Units are chosen by camp director, you can choose to sleep in any beds in a cozy cabin.

Each unit has a wash station, a campfire ring and toilets nearby. Some units have an outdoor pavilion, which is used for unit activities. Central shower houses are available for you to use. Don't worry - indoor shelter is available at both camps for when the weather gets too severe!

How do I spend time at camp?

Other than learning all about film and producing your own movie with your cabin bunkies, you'll have lots of fun daily with your counselors and friends, including awesome all-camp activities such as Improv Lessons, Film Makeup, Juice n Paints, campfires, and more. There is endless singing and games and sometimes just chilling out with nature.

WHAT ARE COUNSELORS LIKE?

Camp staff rocks! Our counselors are enthusiastic, warm hearted young adult women who come from all over the District. All staff members are carefully screened, including background checks, and selected for their ability to add to the camp experience. Most of the Camp staff are CPR and first-aid trained, and many hold advanced certifications as Red Cross Lifeguards, Water Safety Instructors, Education, Behavioral Management, Mass Communications, Theater, Dance, Cosmetology, Wilderness First Aid, Food Handling and Counseling.

What if I have more questions?

The camp director for IPM Camp is available year round and are always happy to answer your questions. Tasha McClelland, IPM Camp Director, can be reached at tashamcmgmt@gmail.com

WHAT KIND OF FOOD IS OFFERED?

Most of your meals are served either buffet style or family style in our camp dining hall. We serve three well-balanced and nutritious meals daily. We also do campfire cookouts where you'll help plan and prepare the meal. There is always one main dish and a vegetarian option, along with side dishes. You'll have a snack in the afternoon and fruit is always available.

Typical meals include chicken, casseroles, pizza, stir fry, tacos, pasta dishes, turkey dinners, grilled cheese, and soup. If you're a picky eater, don't worry! We always have other options such as a salad bar, veggies, or sandwiches and our kitchen staff work hard to provide you with food you like.

If you have special dietary needs, let us know before you arrive and we'll be happy to work with you.
