Freedom Fest

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom."
— 2 Corinthians 3:17

When I served as a chaplain at Fort Rucker, preparations for the Freedom Fest began months in advance. It was a well-choreographed and carefully planned event, with a strong focus on both safety and celebration.

Next week, our communities will host many such celebrations. The Slocomb Tomato Festival will kick off a season filled with local events throughout our county. Each town holds its own version of a Freedom Fest, honoring the birth of our nation.

As Christians, we not only honor our nation's freedom but also proclaim the freedom we have in Christ. Let's make the most of these gatherings to celebrate, connect, and share the hope of Jesus.

With joy and purpose,
Brother Tim Bedsole
