

In the northern hemisphere, it is the Fall season where the leaves are turning colors and falling to earth creating crunchy sounds as we walk through them. Pumpkins, also in all colors, are joining leaves, gourds and other items to create a cornucopia of autumn sights to adorn centerpieces all season long.

Later in October the Pathways transcripts will be enhanced to incorporate meeting roles and projects from the legacy Successful Club, Better Speaker, and Leadership Excellence Series. Come learn about one way to track these new Level requirements. Come join us to learn onboarding tools and techniques as well as getting your questions answered. If there are folks on the call with initial questions on how to access and work their transcript, we will handle those first. For veterans, it may be the refresher you need to jumpstart your project completion.

Consider joining to network with others sharing their shortcuts and perhaps a new way to navigate your path.

We look forward to meeting YOU at the next Zoom call.
