Run, don't walk! to add a new Fixed Indexed Annuity to your retirement portfolio. These days, as in the last ten years, some of the USA's best financial geniuses have developed supped-up Fixed Index Annuities that perform like an imported sports car as compared to the old FIA's, a used mid-sized Ford sedan. It will get you from A to B, but you don't want your friends to see you.

Find an FIA vehicle like this one, and you will be glad you did. Uncapped earnings potential grows over a 2-3 year period according to a high-powered Index, like a Schillers index, for example, and eliminates anxiety-provoking losses due to common market fluctuations. This is a formula built for an exhilarating ride that is sure to please almost any financial enthusiast.

At McKnight & Associates, we work hard to find great products for our clients that outperform their expectations. While we can't (or maybe don't want to) drive a sleek and beautiful 2019 Porsche 911, we can still appreciate a beauty that WOW and a power to accelerate that is awe-inspiring. Why drive a mid-size FORD sedan (your old FIA) when you could drive a new Porsche 911 (the new FIA's)?
