

Sun Fire Creations

Intuitive Feather Painting Workshop

Overview:

In Cree culture the feather represents a link between the heavens and earth, the gifting of a feather is a symbol of honor and respect, and finding a feather is a message from spirit that you are on the right path.

In this popular, signature workshop, participants will be guided step by step to create a uniquely personalized feather painting. Each participant will explore brush and color work, while tapping into their intuition to create a beautiful piece of art representative of their own personality and sacred life journey.

Objectives:

- Explore Indigenous culture & beliefs
- Capacity & skill building
- Fostering introspection and enhanced self awareness
- Peer connection & stress relief
- Practicing purposeful creation & mindfulness

Small class & large event pricing available.
