The Elk Grove Historical Museum put together a short video about the elements of art and used some of the artwork that is hanging in the museum from the current “Reimaginings” exhibit in which many AAEGV artists have participated. A Power Point presentation has been set up at this link: <https://aaegv.org/about-us>. As of press time the link was not activated, but you can check it out later. “Reimaginings” will continue at the Elk Grove Historical Museum and the museum is

2. The Main Street Gallery, Lake Zurich, IL – Not Your Average Joe Exhibit October 19th

Mainstreet Gallery is pleased to announce, "Not Your Average Joe: A Fresh Take on Figurative and Portrait Works." Some people bring you joy, some make you think, and some make you wonder what planet they came from! We are looking for all kinds in this exhibit: the dramatic, the timid, the pranksters, the ones with hidden superpowers. Are they moody, silly, eccentric, pompous, fanmogyphal? (Now we're just making stuff up . . . and so should you)! Introduce us to some fascinating people - real or imagined. Ramp up your creativity and bring your unique point of view. All entries must be original. All mediums are welcome. This is a juried show. Entries must be submitted digitally. (Submission deadline is September 14th)

Awards are given for 1st, 2nd, 3rd place and two honorable mentions. All 2-D works must be for sale, wired, and framed. All 3D pieces must be easy to display. Please find more information at: https://www.mainstreetartcenter.com/figures_faces_prospectus.htm

3. Interesting Opportunity

Just wanted to pass this opportunity along to someone in our artist association: my neighbor is looking for an artist to paint on two wood vintage ironing boards; possibly with a holiday theme. Whatever monies this would entail would be worked out between her and the artist. If someone might be interested in doing this project here is Debbie Krumpack's email:

dkrumpack@comcast.net. She and her husband reside in Mount Prospect. (Sally Tibbetts)
