Creating a Winning Resume: For Marginalized Communities

By celebrating the accomplishments of professionals, Ashley Faison eliminates insecurities and creates career plans to position them for negotiations that land a higher salary. She is a certified resume writer with 12+ years of experience reviewing hiring packages and sitting on interview panels.

Ashleyfaison.com LLC is a black-owned, woman-owned, survivor-led business committed to improving the economic status and quality of life for women through professional development coaching and resume writing.

Ashley provides an inspirational perspective for non-profits, corporations, and government entities who intend to encourage, motivate, and develop their workforce.
