

Committed to following Jesus' example, we joyfully share God's love, grace and gifts with all in our church family and community.

Phase I No House

Ru 1:16 Where you go, I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.

It was 2016 and we'd been looking for property for two years. Then one day Pastor Jim Simpson was talking with the "bagel shop lady" who happened to be a realtor. She mentioned a new listing that was located on Blue Bird Road...

Phase II New House

Ps 127:1 Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain.

It's 2018 and our contractor's bid has come in almost $1M over budget. How could this happen? Can we build this church? Soon after receiving the high bid, Jim Reich was exploring other options and ran into our insurance agent, Kevin, at the Thrift Store. Kevin suggested talking with the contractor building the Methodist Church...

Phase III Shared House

Is 43: 6-7. Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.

There are seasons for every church. As we move to a new church building, we will be presented with opportunities that may appear as challenges, yet we will move faithfully forward to our next season, always listening for God's guidance.

Phase IV Our House

1Ti 6:18-19 Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation of the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

We anticipate our new church with room for all, including newcomers, to worship, plus space for all volunteers, both members and friends of Faith, to explore and expand our mission.
