You will have some free time in Santiago before boarding an overnight bus to Pucon.

In Pucon over the next two days you can enjoy white water rafting, soaking in thermal springs, hike Villarica Volcano (it's active) or explore the lagoons and lush forests of Chile's Lake District in Huerquehue National Park with a guide. From here you will cross the Andes on an overland transfer to Bariloche passing through the beautiful lake district.

In Bariloche you will stop at a gaucho ranch where you will take to the saddle for a horseback ride with a gaucho by your side. Afterwards, you will be served a BBQ lunch before heading on to San Carlos de Bariloche for the night.

The following day you have free time to explore the stunning areas around Bariloche. Here you may opt to spend a full day navigating the Blest arm of Lake Nahuel Huapi spotting amazing highlights such as Centinela Island, Friass River Valdivian Rainforest and Tronador Mountain landing at Cantaros Port where you can opt to trek through the forest and enjoy views of Lake Los Cantaros and the adjacent waterfalls or you could enjoy and introduction to the highlights of San Carlos de Bariloche on a Circuito Chico Tour, stopping at Bahia Lopez and Panoramic Point before you continue on to Cerro Campanero where you can get even a better view by riding the chairlift. You may also opt to simply hike around the scenic countryside, or wander through town and sample some of the artisan chocolate. The following day you will fly to Buenos Aires (included). The optional activities here include: a guided tour of the opera house (Teatro Colon), La Boca Neighborhood Visit, San Telmo Visit, a Buenos Areas Guided City Tour or Bike Tour, La Boca and Isla Maciel, or a Tango Dinner Show.
