

SALT CAVE SESSION

Guest Acknowledgement & Agreement

Please read this acknowledgement carefully before participating in a salt cave session. By signing below, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to the terms outlined in this document.

1. Public Session Notice

I understand and acknowledge that salt cave sessions are open to the general public. Sessions may be shared with other guests who have independently registered and paid for the same time slot.

2. Shared Environment & Guest Behavior

I understand and acknowledge that because sessions are shared with other members of the public, we cannot guarantee a fully silent or undisturbed environment. Other guests may exhibit unsettled behaviors or produce noises during the session that are outside of our control.

While we strongly request that all guests maintain a respectful and considerate demeanor toward others sharing the space, we cannot guarantee the behavior of other guests at any time during the session.

3. Our Commitment to You

Our staff will make every reasonable effort to maintain a calm, peaceful, and respectful atmosphere within the salt cave. Any guest who is significantly disrupting the session may be asked to leave. However, we appreciate your understanding that some situations may be beyond our immediate ability to control.

GUEST ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing below, I confirm that:

- I understand this is a public session and may be shared with other guests.
- I understand that unsettled behaviors or noises from other guests cannot be guaranteed against.
- I agree to respect and maintain a peaceful environment for all guests during my session.
- I acknowledge that the management cannot guarantee the behavior of other guests but will take reasonable steps to address disruptions.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation. We hope you enjoy your salt cave experience.
