What's New

Trends are ever changing. It's a good thing too, since I tend to hold on to my favorite pieces for a long time. Eventually, it will be in style again, right? Currently the cardigan is trending in all colors and shapes, but going into 2026 sweaters styles will lean towards exciting pullovers, and the classic cardigan with a cinched waist.

The controversial, fast fashion retailer SHEIN, originally only online, opened its first permanent shop in Paris, France this month. Although the company was protested for environmental and content concerns, shoppers showed up to check out the brick and mortar boutique. SHEIN continues to hold pop-up shops in the United States.
