BE A "PAL FOR LIFE"

This is a program designed to help animals that have been waiting for a long time for their new home ... we will provide you with a coupon booklet upon request and you can make a donation when you like for whatever amount you like—no strings attached and all donations are tax deductible! You will receive a year end thank you letter for your taxes.

Visit our website to see our full list of animals that are available for adoption—everyone wants a kitten, but many one year old cats are deemed "too old", or perhaps the cat has "teary eyes" - everyone wants perfection, but all pets give unconditional love—they don't care what YOU look like.

Visit our website for more information on becoming a "PAL for Life(r)" at www.palpets.org, call 973-584-0095, or email us at info@palpets.org — it's as easy as that !!

Miracles Happen When We Work Together

The miracle of an abandoned cat finding a happy home, a tiny kitten receiving the medication that saves its life. Become a part of a miracle. Join us in providing hope to homeless cats this holiday season that they will be loved once again.

We are celebrating our 84th anniversary this year and we need your support more than ever. Every penny we raise goes to cover food, boarding and vet bills so that we can help the animals in need. For each $5.00 donation you make, we dedicate an ornament in your pet's name on a beautiful evergreen in front of Hackettstown Animal Hospital. This is a beautiful way to remember a pet that is no longer with us, or honor a living pet.

Holiday Pet Safety Tips

Ingesting chocolate can result in agitation, vomiting, diarrhea, high heart rate, tremors, seizures, and even death. Some nuts can cause lethargy, fever, vomiting, tremors, joint stiffness and the inability to walk.

ALCOHOL AND ARTIFICIAL SWEETENERS

Alcoholic beverages may cause a host of dangerous symptoms, including coma and seizures. Artificial sweeteners can cause liver failure. Be sure to avoid candies, particularly gum, which may have these dangerous chemicals.

HOLIDAY DECORATIONS

Tinsel, ribbons, and similar decorations can cause cuts or obstructions in the intestinal tract. Some lights and any candles may cause fires if knocked over.

These can cause lethargy, loss of appetite, and vomiting.

FATTY TRIMMINGS AND BONES

Pets may experience digestive problems, including diarrhea and vomiting, when eating fatty foods. It may even lead to pancreatitis. Bones can cause perforations and constipation.

If chewed, live electrical cords can cause burns, difficulty breathing, seizures and cardiac arrest. Beware of packaging, twist ties, etc. which are a hazard if swallowed.

PARTIES AND OVERSTIMULATION

Some guests may be uncomfortable around your pets. Your pets might also be uncomfortable around groups of unfamiliar people. Keep a separate quiet place for pets during celebrations.

We are looking for a few animals lovers to give our cats some TLC, scoop litter, light housekeeping, etc. at our busy adoption center at PetSmart, Mt. Olive and also at Whole Pets Market, Mansfield. Must be 18 years of age. This is a perfect way to get your "kitty fix" if you are unable to have a pet where you live. Sorry we cannot accommodate community service groups.

Are you a baker or love to raise money? We love new items to sell at our monthly bake sales and we are always looking for new ideas and people to help with fundraisers.

If you would love to help, but don't know how to get started, it's easy, just give us a call at 973-584-0095, email us at info@palpets.org or visit our website at www.palpets.org and someone will contact you to get you started. ESTATE PLANNING ... Please remember your pets and PAL in your estate planning—the animals will appreciate the lasting gift you give them.

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

If your pet goes missing, contact your local animal control officer, local police department, local vets, shelters, post flyers, call your local radio station. If your town has an online forum, post the animal there also—it is amazing how many people will respond and be on the lookout for your pet. There is also NJ Lost and Found Pets Facebook.
