

PBGA-OKIKI CUP PLAYOFFS

Toward the end of the season (Aug-Sep), competitions will culminate into higher stake events referred to as our PBGA-OKIKI CUP Playoffs. Much like the PGA Tour's version of the FEDEX Cup Playoffs, points will increase, prize money will increase and progressively players are whittled away out of the playoffs until we are left with our final event, The Tour Championship, where we will see our top echelon of players battling with everything on the line. It will be exciting golf and entertaining for all involved.

Here is how it will work:

- The playoffs will comprise the 4 weekends, 24 & 25 August, 31 August & 1 September, 7 & 8 September, and then our final week 14 & 15 September 2019.
- PBG $ will be introduced and players will win these $ as lesson credits. The PBG $ will represent our OKIKI Cup Playoff points, with the highest earner at the end of the playoffs being awarded our OKIKI Cup Champion for 2018-19 Season.
- To be eligible for the playoffs, rankings from the PBG Tour OOM points will be used. The top 24 from the OOM list as after the last event before the playoffs commence, after Sunday 18 August 2019, will be offered to take part in the playoffs. Anyone opting out of the playoffs, the next player in the list will be offered the spot, and so and so forth, until we get a full field of 24 players.

- 1st Playoff Event – Forest Yuan Trophy – 18 holes @ Mandai – 24/25 Aug 2019
 - There will be a cut after the first 9-holes where only the top 20 (plus ties) will progress to the 2nd round and 2nd playoff event.
- 2nd Playoff Event – Kranji Mandai – 18 holes – 31 Aug/1 Sep 2019
 - The top 16 will progress to the next playoff event.
 - No cut for this event
- 3rd Playoff Event – Kranji – 18 holes – 7/8 Sep 2019
 - The top 12 will progress to the finals, where all points are reset depending on ranking before the final event.
 - No cut for this event
- FINAL Playoff Event – The Tour Championship @ Ria Bintan – 18 holes – 14/15 Sep 2019
 - Every player to make it through to the Tour Championship has the chance to be champion of the PBGA-OKIKI Cup depending on how everyone plays.
 - All players prizemoney will be set at the start of the event depending on their ranking coming into the event, the higher the ranking, the more you start with. It will be an advantage to have a higher ranking.

Prizemoney breakdown for the playoffs (all figures are in PBG$).

1 st Event – Total Purse PBG$50,000
1	9,000		7	2,600		13	1,500		19	700
2	6,000		8	2,350		14	1,350		20	600
3	4,500		9	2,100		15	1,250		21
4	3,750		10	1,900		16	1,100		22
5	3,250		11	1,750		17	950		23
6	2,900		12	1,650		18	800		24

2 nd Event – Total Purse PBG$50,000
1	10,000		6	3,600		11	1,250		16	600
2	7,000		7	3,100		12	950		17
3	6,000		8	2,500		13	800		18
4	5,000		9	2,000		14	700		19
5	4,250		10	1,600		15	650		20

3 rd Event – Total Purse PBG$50,000
1	10,000		5	4,500		9	2,500		13
2	7,000		6	4,000		10	2,000		14
3	6,000		7	3,500		11	1,500		15
4	5,000		8	3,000		12	1,000		16

After 3rd Event, ALL players remaining will be ranked and their prizemoney will start the Tour Championship based on the breakdown of the 3rd event, for example, the leader will start the Tour Championship with 10,000, 2nd is 7,000...

Final Event – Tour Championship – Total Purse PBG$150,000

1	20,000	4	10,000	7	7,000	10	4,000
2	14,000	5	9,000	8	6,000	11	3,000
3	12,000	6	8,000	9	5,000	12	2,000

The player with the most prizemoney from the Tour Championship will be crowned our PBGA-OKIKI CUP CHAMPION 2018-19

The currency conversion is PBG$100 = SGD 1 of lesson credit, cannot be collected in SGD. The final amount accumulated maybe received either as a deduction from lesson fees or can be collected as gift vouchers for golf lessons to the value of. You can always give these to loved ones as a gift for birthdays or Christmas...$3,000 of lesson credit donated by PBGA.

Our crowned PBGA-OKIKI Cup Champion will also be awarded the special prize of entry fee and the airfare to Australia to play in one prestigious event at the end of the year (2019) in Australia. This will run in conjunction to our PBG Tour trip to Australia to play.

