

COURSE 1

Additional Information

Aqīdah : Theology	Principles of Faith in Allah, the Messengers, the scriptures, the angels, Day of Judgement and Predestination. Students will learn the basic principles of Sunni Islamic belief through evidence based learning from the Qur'an and the Sunna, they will also explore the logical proofs as laid down by the scholars of theology
Sīrah : Prophetic Biography	The life of the Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him. Students will explore the life and living of the Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him. Prophetic biography will include the important role women played in the life of the Prophet, peace be upon him and their essential role in helping establish the foundations of the first community of Muslims.
Fiqh : Jurisprudence	Islamic fundamentals and practice of sacred law such as purification, prayer, and fasting. Students will study the essentials of Islam from the point of view of the law. They will study the five legal rulings, wajib , mandub , mubah , makru , haram , as they pertain to basic practice.
Ādāb : Spirituality	The study of God Consciousness and the internal practice of faith. Exploring the soul, heart and spirit and etiquettes in the presence of God.
Sports	Students will engage in sunnah sports activities such as archery and horse riding as well as other sports that aim to help build confidence in who they are as young Muslim women as well as gain the ability of working together as part of a student community.
Art and Drama	Students will engage in art and drama workshops such as learning to play the duff (traditional drum), sing and write Nashids (songs of praise), Islamic arts and exploring their faith through drama.
Khidmah : Service to others	Students will engage in activities linked to their learning such as organising their own fundraising events and engaging in community service, they will also explore ways to support each other with elements of their faith.