

Who are we?

GIG International is a company specialized in the world of trade, e-marketing, administrative and financial services and consulting all over the world, established by a group of young people and experts looking to provide diverse and distinguished professional services to its valued customers.

At GIG we are interested in providing services in the fields of education, tourism and travel, aviation, real estate, medical, legal services, travel visas, agricultural development, and animal production. And other high-quality services, at competitive prices; which we provide by a distinguished team of local and international competencies and expertise acclaimed for integrity, honesty, trust, merit, excellence and creativity.

