

James Lee

QUALIFICATIONS SUMMARY

Highly personable Manager/ Project Manager/ Mechanical Maintenance Planner/ Materials Analyst/ Sales Engineer/ Customer Service Rep/ with over thirty years of experience in technical sales and service, able to provide management, oversight and technical support/services to multiple partners in the Industry including the Marine Industry.

- Very familiar with marine related industries and practices including commercial fisheries, boatyard operations and vessel operations
- Familiar with Marine Equipment and Systems
- Demonstrated excellent leadership qualities as U.S.C.G. licensed U.S. Merchant Marine Master, 1600 Ton
- Excellent analytical and troubleshooting skills
- Talent for listening to and identifying issues of public and co-workers,
- Ability to interact, build and maintain productive relationships with coworkers, customers and suppliers
- Track record of assisting with reverse engineering, design and implementation of materials and services
- Secured company achievement awards for delivery of exceptional customer service.

Professional Experience

Nextera Energy Seabrook Station - 8/15/2017 to 12/31/2018

- Inventory Manager/ SPOC
- Responsible for the safety and management of 10 direct reports
- Responsible for managing $79 Million dollars of Inventory
- Procuring and expediting materials both planned and emergent

NextEra Energy Seabrook Station 07/09/2014 to 8/15/2017

- COG Short Range Mechanical Planner
- Executing duties of Mechanical Planner for Outage related Work Orders

(continued)

NEXTERA ENERGY Seabrook Station, Seabrook, New Hampshire - 11/30/10 to 07/09/2014

- Materials Management Specialist
- Executed duties of MA by providing materials and service for site scheduled and emergent work
- OCC Materials Manager day watch for Diesel Generator Outages, OR014, OR15, OR16, and OR17 Refueling Outages
- Primary contact for emergent materials needs of onsite work groups
- Execute materials management processes, stocking logic, refurbishment, interact with business units and outside suppliers
- Able to research parts from technical drawings and manuals

TRISTATE PACKING SUPPLY INC.- Scarborough, Maine Sales Engineer - 1990 to 11/19/10

Substantially increased sales and profitability for company's fluid sealing products and technologies.

- Increased sales from $10,000 per year to $750,000 per. year by marketing products to solve customer technical issues
- Instrumental in developing and executing company sales plan as well as inventory planning.
- Developed ongoing relationships with manufacturing and maintenance management teams, including the company's only major accounts as the sole source vendor.
- Worked with paper mills, power plants, waste water treatment plants throughout New England increasing customer base by 10%.
- Worked on long term upgrading of plant rotating equipment to increase profitability and lower cost of ownership at paper mill accounts.
- Design custom machined products, including field-gathering information, developing designs, and working with machinists to fabricate parts for many types of equipment.
- Represented 8 major manufacturers providing customer access to thousands of items.

U.S. Merchant Marine Captain 1600 Tons - 1976-1990

Worked as Captain on oil and mineral related vessels, transporting personnel, equipment and supplies to oil rigs worldwide. Also measuring fields and prospecting for oil and gas at sea on seismic survey vessels

- Achieved the rank of Captain through a series of promotions.
- Served as factory foreman on fishing trawler in Alaska, building and maintaining working relationships with 38 person crew.
- Maxi yacht ocean racing sailor competing on team at the top levels of sailing worldwide.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Associate Degree in Marine Science, Southern Maine Technical Institute, South Portland, Maine