⋈ God Confirming Brother Earl Martin's Testimonies ⋈

During the Boston meetings in August 2021, Br. Earl Martin was getting ready to preach and had asked Br. Cary Holden, from Wildwood Tabernacle, to print out a certain quote of Br. William Branham for him. However, as Br. Earl looked for the quote, he thought the quote was placed in his bible, but he was unable to locate it. He asked the Assistant Pastor of Open Door Community Tabernacle, Br. Kenol Helas, to go get the quote from Br. Cary in the back. As the quote was handed to Br. Earl, he opened his bible and placed it in there to read to the congregation later. As Br. Earl ministered to the people, he had not read the quote as yet. Then the Holy Spirit started moving and fell upon a sister and she begins to prophesy:

Heti! Heti! Heti! Heti! Heti! Oh, Heti! Heti! Heti! I tell you; I tell you, Heti! Heti! You watch, you watch, you watch, you watch, you watch. The fruits, the fruits, the fruits, the fruits of your testimonies, of your testimonies, of your testimonies. I tell you Heti. They are not just yours. They are mines, mines, mines, mines. And I tell you, I tell you, I tell you my people, if you doubt these testimonies, if you doubt these testimonies, I tell you, you doubt me, you doubt me. I tell you, I tell you, I tell you my people, for these are mine, mine, mine, mine, mine mine. I tell you; I tell you; I tell you.

After the Holy Spirit finished using the sister, Br. Earl said, "Now, listen. Look what He said, These are my testimonies. I got something right here in my bible that I was going to read to you, but now the Holy Spirit has done spoke it. It said if a man goes forth-- Br. Branham said, with testimonies, and they are-- God vindicates them testimonies, then they are no longer his testimonies, they are My testimonies. They are God's testimonies, and I will read that quote to you, but I don't have to because the Holy Ghost just called it out, the very words I was going to read to you tonight. But I didn't even have to read it to you because the Holy Ghost told you. These are not, these are not Earl Martin's testimonies. These are vindicated God's testimonies. Well, I think I'm just going to let you people read it:

"Then you have to notice. When you testify of something, if God... If a man testifies, you have a right to doubt that (See?), or not doubt it, but to watch it. And then if God testifies to the same thing, that it's absolu-tely the truth, then that's not the man's testimony, that's God confir-ming that testimony. Isn't that right?"

52-0717 - Get The People To Believe - Rev. William Marrion Branham

That is God confirming it and it's no longer the man's testimony. Wasn't that exactly what the Holy Spirit spoke right here? That is why I want to read it to you because I want to show you the Holy Ghost. I told you He is here, right here in our midst, now, and you can get deliverance if you want deliverance. You can get deliverance."

God permitted Br. Cary to forget the quote so all the Glory can go to Him and prove once more that He is alive in our midst.

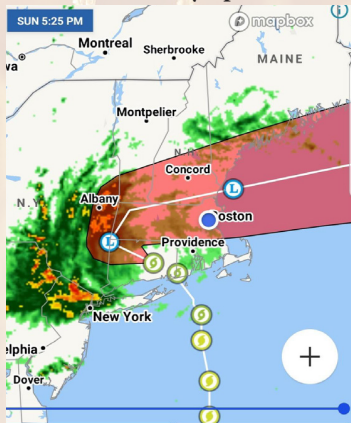

Among those who witnessed were: Br. Bryan, Sis. Beede, Sis. Wynell, Sis. Lisa, Br. Stephen and Sis. Julieth.

❖ God holds airplane on the ground ❖

During these same meetings six brothers, Br. Tim Martin, Br. Mike Gibson, Br. David James, Br. Matthew, Br. Joshua and Br. Paul flew in from Arkansas. When they bought their tickets to fly to Boston for the meetings, they thought they were to leave Arkansas in the morning only to find the time was in the afternoon. Their flight from Boston was scheduled to leave at 4:38pm on Sunday. The plan was to leave church at 1:30pm to give them enough time to drive to the airport. However, the service was a little longer that day and these brothers were anxious to not miss their flight. Just around the time they planned to leave, the Holy Spirit started speaking through a brother and said to them:

And I say, I say my children, my children, I say, come before you and I say I tell you, I tell you, I say, I say and I say the sun the sun you see it, you see it I say I say already revealed, you see the flight, the flight, the delay, and I say I say, I tell you, I say you watch for I say I say, this storm, this storm I knew it about it, and I say I say it plays into my hand. And I say I tell you, Mike, Mike and I say Tim, and I say David, and I say you see you see the di..., you see the you see the discrepancy in the tickets, and I say I say you see you see you thought that you were coming at a certain time, and it turned out that you were coming later. But I say I tell you I say my sons, my sons, I say I say I don't wish you to rush off. For I say I say I tell you, the cup, you think it's full, but it will be overflowing. I say I say watch.

And I speak again I say the prophet, you see, you see it, he was in the line of duty, you see the little woman. She said, "Lord, where is your Elisha but the prophet said but my airplane, my airplane but the Holy Spirit you see I tell you, I overwrote, you see, you see it. He was not worried about the airplane; he was worried about following me. And I say, I say my son, don't worry about the airplane, for I say I say, you will not miss it, but I say I say, don't let it hinder you from getting your blessing, for I say, I say I'm still God and I say this meeting is not over, it's not over. Not until I say it's over.

When the service was dismissed, the brothers did not stick around but rather decided to rush straight to the airport. While on the way, one of the brothers received a text message with an updated flight status report stating, "Your flight has been delayed 1 hour and is now leaving at 5:38pm." God kept his promise to them and used the storm, by reversing its course back to the ocean, to keep the airplane grounded for them.

Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you. (Act 13:40-41).

It may be my going-home time. It looks very much that way. If it is, there will rise somebody after me, that'll take the Message on. He'll be an odd person, but he'll rise after this and take the Message on. And you listen to it. As long as it's Scripture, stay with it. If it isn't, there is coming another portion now, for I do believe that we're living in the last days, and I am thankful that I have lived in this day. I wouldn't trade this day for no day. This is the most glorious day that's ever been on the earth. There is no other day that's ever taken this day.
