Tribute to Martha

Ralph Waldo Emerson once wrote "what lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

It is those qualities "within" that makes Martha a woman, who by example, teaches us to have faith in God and in life eternal. She was a woman of warmth and hospitality, action and faith.

In the Gospel of Luke, we learn that Jesus was a friend and a frequent visitor to the home of Martha and her sister, Mary. Blessed with the gift of hospitality, Martha welcomed Jesus in her home in Bethany, located near Jerusalem. The scripture reveals that Martha made Jesus feel quite at home before being pulled away by all she had to do in the kitchen.

We all admire hardworking individuals and most are not comfortable sitting down while someone else is working. We tend to think that work comes first, followed by conversation and/or entertainment.

Like Martha, you faithfully serve your Chapter, shouldering responsibilities, often working behind the scenes. You extend the hand of hospitality and friendship as you greet visitors. Following Martha's example, you offer a warm welcome to your Chapter's guests.

Martha was also a person of action. Unlike her sister, Mary, when Martha heard that Jesus was drawing near, she immediately got up and went to him. You, like Martha, are doers – women and men of action, contributing to the success of your Chapter.

Most important, Martha was a woman of faith. Her forthright statement of faith proclaimed in her Star Point lecture, goes beyond anything her sister, Mary, would later verbalize.

Martha's faith in Jesus was expressed before – yes, before Jesus raised her brother from the dead. Her trustful faith stands as a sterling example for us to follow daily.

Give me Lord, the faith of Martha.
Faith in God's eternity
Give the blessed reassurance
Of the deathless lives to be.

Face to face we shall behold Him
Just like Martha let us be.
Face to face the Lord will tell us
Of our immortality.

Virtues Of Our Heroines

In Genesis we read God created the heaven and earth. Nature that God put on earth is in itself beautiful – the soil, the grass, the trees, the fields, the flowers, streams, mountains, birds – all placed here for us to enjoy. Over all he placed the blue sky then hung the moon and stars. One star is especially important to us – the Star in the East which has been our faithful guide for more than a hundred years. The lessons have helped us on through the labyrinth of life. They have been stepping stones on the paths of charity, truth, and loving kindness.

There is a blue glow from Adah's station which teaches us the lesson of fidelity. God is beyond the blue, but his love and his spirit surrounds us. He is ever guiding and watching over His own. Adah laid down her life to fulfill a sacred vow and save her father's honor. A great sacrifice for a young girl and an only child. The blue veil stands for fidelity, one of the finest virtues a person can possess. The sword stands for justice.

The story of Ruth is one of the most beautiful ever written and brings to us a life of constant devotion. Yellow symbolizes the golden grain from which our bread is made. Material food is necessary to sustain our bodies. Break thou the bread of life. Ruth has shown us that lowly service to others is not lowly in the sight of Him whose star we have seen. Responsibilities and duties are something we all have – be they great or small. The sheaf teaches us to be steadfast, constant, and true.

Esther, a courageous and brave Jewish girl who became queen of Persia had a great part in the teaching of true nobility, by her great sacrifice to save her people from death. Her courage and thoughtlessness of self gives us a needed lesson of loyalty and patriotism. Few of us will be required to make such a huge decision but daily we need to choose to be loyal to ourselves, our neighbors, our country, and our God. The crown and scepter united serves as an emblem of royalty and power. It's an emblem of joy and light.

Martha teaches us the lesson of faith. The experiences of life arrive thick and quickly and give the soul growth. To meet these experiences and conquer them and to rise above them – we must be led by the word of God and retain our faith. There is a power in faith which above all else enables us to endure and triumph over the ills of both body and soul. The broken column reminds us we must have faith in God and faith in His eternal grace.

In Electa's time being a Christian could cost you your life. She was subjected to severe trials and bitter persecution. But she put into practice the second great law of Christ by her generous hospitality and loving kindness to the poor and distressed. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself – which gave her the title of elect lady. The cup reminds us to be charitable to all.

If we would live the virtues taught by these five heroines we must forget ourselves and live our obligation and strengthen the ties of golden friendship.

Every life has a scale by which to live. To hang perfect, scales must balance. There is no better level by which to live and mold our today's and tomorrow's, than the Bible: Book of Books and Word of God – God's promise of Eternal Life. It teaches us how to balance God's scale.

Devotional Corner

There is an old hymn with this chorus:

*In my heart there rings a melody,
There rings a melody
Of Heaven's harmony;
In my heart there rings a melody
There rings a melody of love.*

It's sung in the key of E and this is the key in which we need to work together.

The key of E has four sharps and they are most significant to our Order. The first sharp is F which is faith. Faith must come first or we will falter midway with doubts and misgivings.

The second sharp is C which stands for charity. Our Order was founded upon being charitable and works done by unselfish love can be counted as being worthy.

The third sharp is D and we associate this with devotion to duty. On again, off again folks accomplish very little. We must be constant and persevere.

The fourth and last sharp is G. This is for our God in whose name we have faith, charity, and devotion to duty and whom we have chosen to follow, led by the star He sent to show us the way.

International Weekend

Putting All the Pieces Together will be the theme of the 2020 online International Weekend and Membership Forum which is being hosted by the Grand Chapter of New Hampshire on October 30th and November 1st.
