The week-long event culminated with the installation of new General Grand Chapter Officers, including our own Brother Richard A. Farnsworth, III, who was installed as Worthy Grand Organist. Maine's last GGC Officer was Sister Evelyn C. Frye, PGM & GTE, who served as Worthy Grand Marshal from 1997-2000.

Congratulations also go to our new GGC Committee Members and Special Appointment: Sister Lucille A. Nanos, PGM - Cancer, Sister Brenda L. Hall, PGM - ESTARL, Brother Brett Jervis, PGP - Heart, and Sister Stephanie J. Dupal, PGM - Star Chaser.

Fall Event Fun!

Ellsworth was the place to be on Saturday, October 12th.

The day began with a "Fall Foliage" train ride on the Downeast Scenic Railroad, which took passengers across the Union River.

Afterward, folks gathered at the Masonic Hall in Ellsworth for a soup and sandwich lunch, followed by games and other entertainment.

The chairman, Sister Patty Carter of Irene Chapter #97 worked tirelessly to make the day as fun as possible, as well as a financial success.
