

To whom it may concern,

It gives me great pleasure and honor to recommend Mr. Dion Ross. I have worked with Mr. Ross for 1 year. I knew him for 6 months, during which time he worked in Logistics and soon became Director of Supply Chain here at Pentagon Technologies. Having Mr. Ross as a boss has been a very pleasing experience. I have been lucky enough to learn so much from him on a daily basis, and I am grateful for his guidance and leadership in all aspects of my life both at work and in my personal life. He is a great boss, caring and thoughtful with an attitude that inspires me to achieve more. I have been constantly impressed by his ability to overcome obstacles that come his way, his friendly nature has made working with him both easier and more enjoyable, which has allowed me the opportunity to grow professionally over the past few months.

It has been an honor to work with Mr. Ross over the past year. his calm demeanor keeps everyone focused on our goals and daily tasks. His optimism has helped me see that there are always victories within each challenge we face as a team or individually. Mr. Ross became Someone I could trust, he wants the best care for his team. having someone like Mr. Ross around has been a positive change, he is willing to take the time and share his knowledge which has helped me grow in my career. I would Like to the time to thank him for his colorful personality, he is an admirable example to follow.

Best regards,

Jecner Castillo

Inventory Control Technician

 2 [redacted] er Ct, Hayward, CA
94545

 5 [redacted]

 [redacted] 8@gmail.com