

AI VOICES

CONTRIBUTOR QUOTE & PUBLICATION RELEASE

Author: Barbie Ray

Book Working Title: Mastering AI

I am collecting real human perspectives about artificial intelligence—what excites us, concerns us, scares us, and what we believe should remain human.

Selected responses may become part of my upcoming book and the larger conversation surrounding it.

YOUR VOICE

In two sentences or fewer, please share an opinion, concern, fear, hope, or perspective you have about artificial intelligence:

CONTRIBUTOR INFORMATION

Full Name: _____

Professional Title (optional): _____

Company/Organization (optional): _____

PERMISSION TO USE MY CONTRIBUTION

I confirm that the statement submitted above reflects my own words, opinions, and/or perspective and that I have the right to provide it for publication.

I grant Barbie Ray, and her publishers, licensees, successors, and assigns, permanent worldwide nonexclusive license to use, reproduce, publish, distribute, display, and reasonably excerpt my submitted statement together with my name and any professional title or company/organization information I have voluntarily provided.

This permission includes use in Barbie Ray's upcoming book about artificial intelligence, as well as future editions, formats, translations, adaptations, and versions of the book.

I also grant permission for my submitted statement, name, and voluntarily provided professional identification to be used in connection with the promotion, publicity, marketing, discussion, and sale of the book, including on websites, social media, presentations, interviews, press materials, book-launch materials, and other materials related to the book.

I understand that my statement may be edited for spelling, punctuation, grammar, formatting, or length, or reasonably excerpted, provided that the editing does not materially change the meaning or intent of my statement.

I understand that submitting a statement does not guarantee that it will be included in the book or related materials. Barbie Ray retains editorial discretion regarding whether and how submitted statements are selected, placed, presented, or used.

NO COMPENSATION

I understand and agree that I am contributing my statement voluntarily.

I will not receive compensation, royalties, fees, proceeds, ownership interest, or any other payment for the submission, publication, promotion, or other authorized use of my statement, name, professional title, or company/organization information.

My participation does not create an employment, partnership, endorsement, or other business relationship with Barbie Ray or the publisher.
