

KENITHA LENA WOODHOUSE

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Senior Department of War executive leader with more than 10 years of progressively responsible experience directing military community support, family readiness, prevention, resilience, and wellness programs across Army enterprise operations. Extensive experience providing strategic leadership, supervising multidisciplinary teams, developing national policy and program guidance, advising senior executives, evaluating program effectiveness, allocating resources, and collaborating with military services and community partners to improve readiness and quality of life for Service Members and their Families. Recognized subject matter expert in prevention, behavioral health, suicide prevention, family programs, and organizational performance. Active Secret Security Clearance.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Army Community Service Program Analyst (GS14) | SEP 2024- PRESENT | 40hrs/wk

Provides enterprise-level strategic leadership for Army Community Service and Military Family Support Programs impacting Active Duty, National Guard, Reserve, and geographically dispersed military communities. Leads strategic planning, development, implementation, and evaluation of Army-wide military community support, prevention, resilience, and family readiness programs supporting enterprise operational readiness. Develops and recommends Army-wide policies, strategic initiatives, and program guidance supporting Military Community and Family Policy objectives. Serves as principal advisor to senior Army leadership regarding community support, prevention strategy, organizational performance, resource priorities, and emerging issues affecting military families. Coordinates and collaborates with Headquarters Department of the Army, Installation Management Command, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, Military Services, installation leadership, and community partners to ensure consistent program implementation across geographically dispersed organizations. Develops enterprise performance metrics, analyzes organizational data, identifies trends, and recommends continuous process improvements to improve effectiveness and service delivery. Presents executive briefings and strategic recommendations to Senior Executive Service members, General Officers, and Headquarters leadership supporting policy development and enterprise decision making. Evaluates program compliance with federal regulations, Department of War policy, Army regulations, and quality assurance standards. Advises leadership on resource allocation, workforce planning, and organizational priorities to support military community programs.

Army Community Service Director (GS13) | March 2023– SEP 2024 | 40hrs/wk

Directed installation-wide Military Community Support Programs consisting of Family Advocacy, Financial Readiness, Relocation, Employment, EFMP, Mobilization, Information and Referral, Army Family Team Building, Volunteer Services, and other quality-of-life programs supporting Soldiers and Families. Directed operational planning, workforce management, budget execution, program evaluation, and strategic resource allocation across multiple military community support programs. Supervised multidisciplinary civilian workforce, establishing organizational priorities, mentoring supervisors, conducting performance management, and developing future leaders. Served as senior advisor to the Garrison Commander regarding military family readiness, prevention strategy, organizational effectiveness, and community risk factors. Conducted program evaluation and quality assurance reviews, ensuring compliance with regulatory standards and improving service delivery outcomes. Advised command leadership on risk factors, program gaps, and prevention strategies, enhancing installation-wide readiness efforts. Directed personnel management functions including performance evaluations, staff development, and accountability measures to ensure mission execution.

KENITHA LENA WOODHOUSE

Army Community Service Chief (GS12) | MAY 2021–MARCH 2023 | 40hrs/wk

Directed daily operations across more than fifteen military community support programs serving multiple Army installations. Managed organizational resources, staffing priorities, workload distribution, and operational performance metrics. Supervised program coordinators and ensured service delivery, compliance, and program effectiveness. Led accreditation activities, ensuring compliance with Army regulations, quality standards, and continuous improvement initiatives.

Early Career Experience (GS-11 and Below)

Progressively advanced through Marine Corps, Army and Air Force positions in Family Advocacy, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response, Exceptional Family Member Program, Army Community Service, and Victim Advocacy, providing crisis intervention, prevention education, multidisciplinary collaboration, case management, and military family support.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Social Work, California Baptist University (2026)

Master of Social Work, Western New Mexico University (2023)

Master of Arts in Urban Affairs, Norfolk State University (2017)

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, Virginia State University (2011)

STRATEGIC RESEARCH & PROGRAM INNOVATION

Developed the "Saving Lives of Those Who Wear Camouflage" suicide prevention initiative and mobile application, translating military suicide research into scalable prevention strategies supporting military readiness, behavioral health, and family resilience.

PROGRAM AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Military Community Support Programs | Family Readiness |
| • Suicide Prevention | Prevention & Resilience |
| • Program Evaluation | Strategic Planning |
| • Policy Development | Organizational Leadership |

AWARDS & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Coined by Congressman Eugene Vindman (2026)

Letter of Recognition, Senator Mark Warner (2026)

Coined by the Under Secretary of Defense (2023)

Authored Army Commander's Financial Readiness Policy (2024)

Led ACS accreditation at Tobyhanna/Picatinny (first since 2013)

Led successful Fort Johnson ACS accreditation