5 Little Ghosts Song

[tune of 5 Little Ducks]

5 white ghosts were home one day
Daddy went shopping and told them to play
“Five Little Ghosts, I’ll be right back!”
“Don’t even think about having a snack!”

The first white ghost felt hungry in her tummy
Had some purple juice, boy it was yummy.
She turned all purple and ran around the house
Hid under the bed; quiet as a mouse. (shhhhhh...)

The second white ghost felt hungry in his tummy
Had some orange carrot, boy it was yummy.
He turned all orange and ran around the house
Hid in the closet; quiet as a mouse. (shhhhhh...)

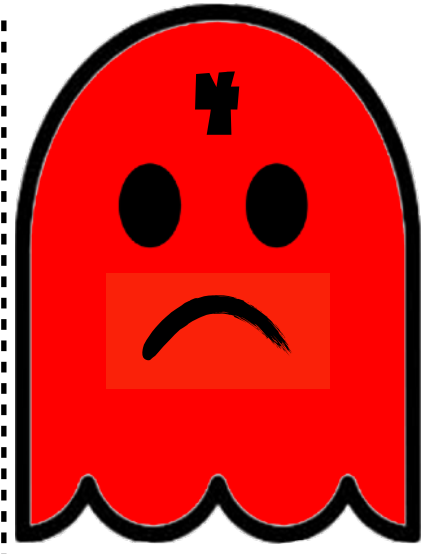

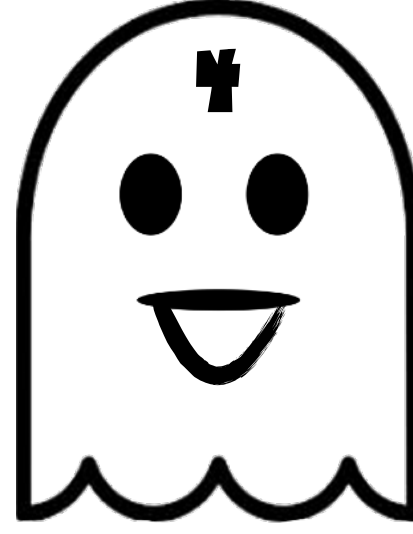

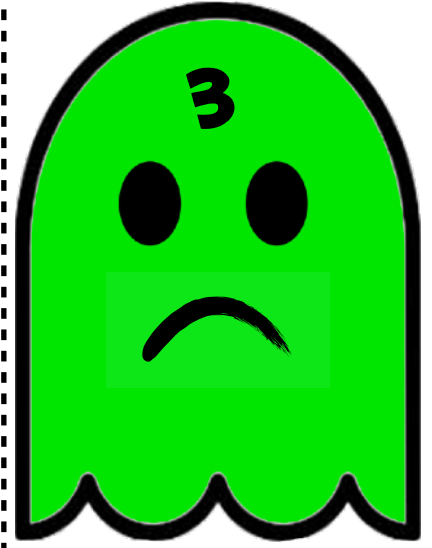

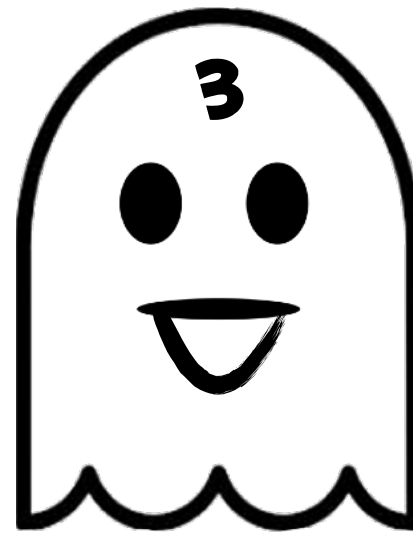

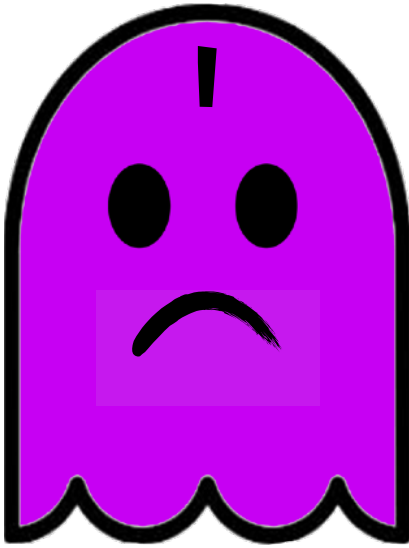

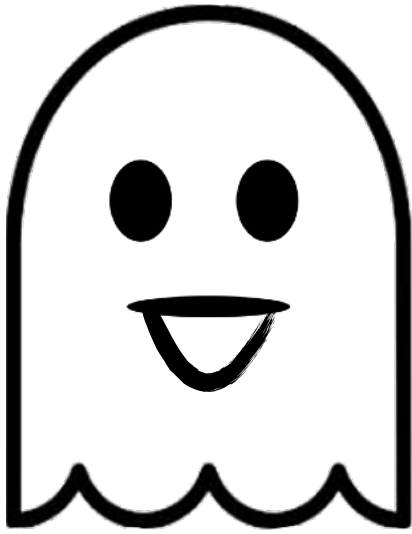

The third white ghost felt hungry in her tummy
Had some green pickle, boy it was yummy.
She turned all green and ran around the house
Hid next to the bed; quiet as a mouse. (shhhhhh...)

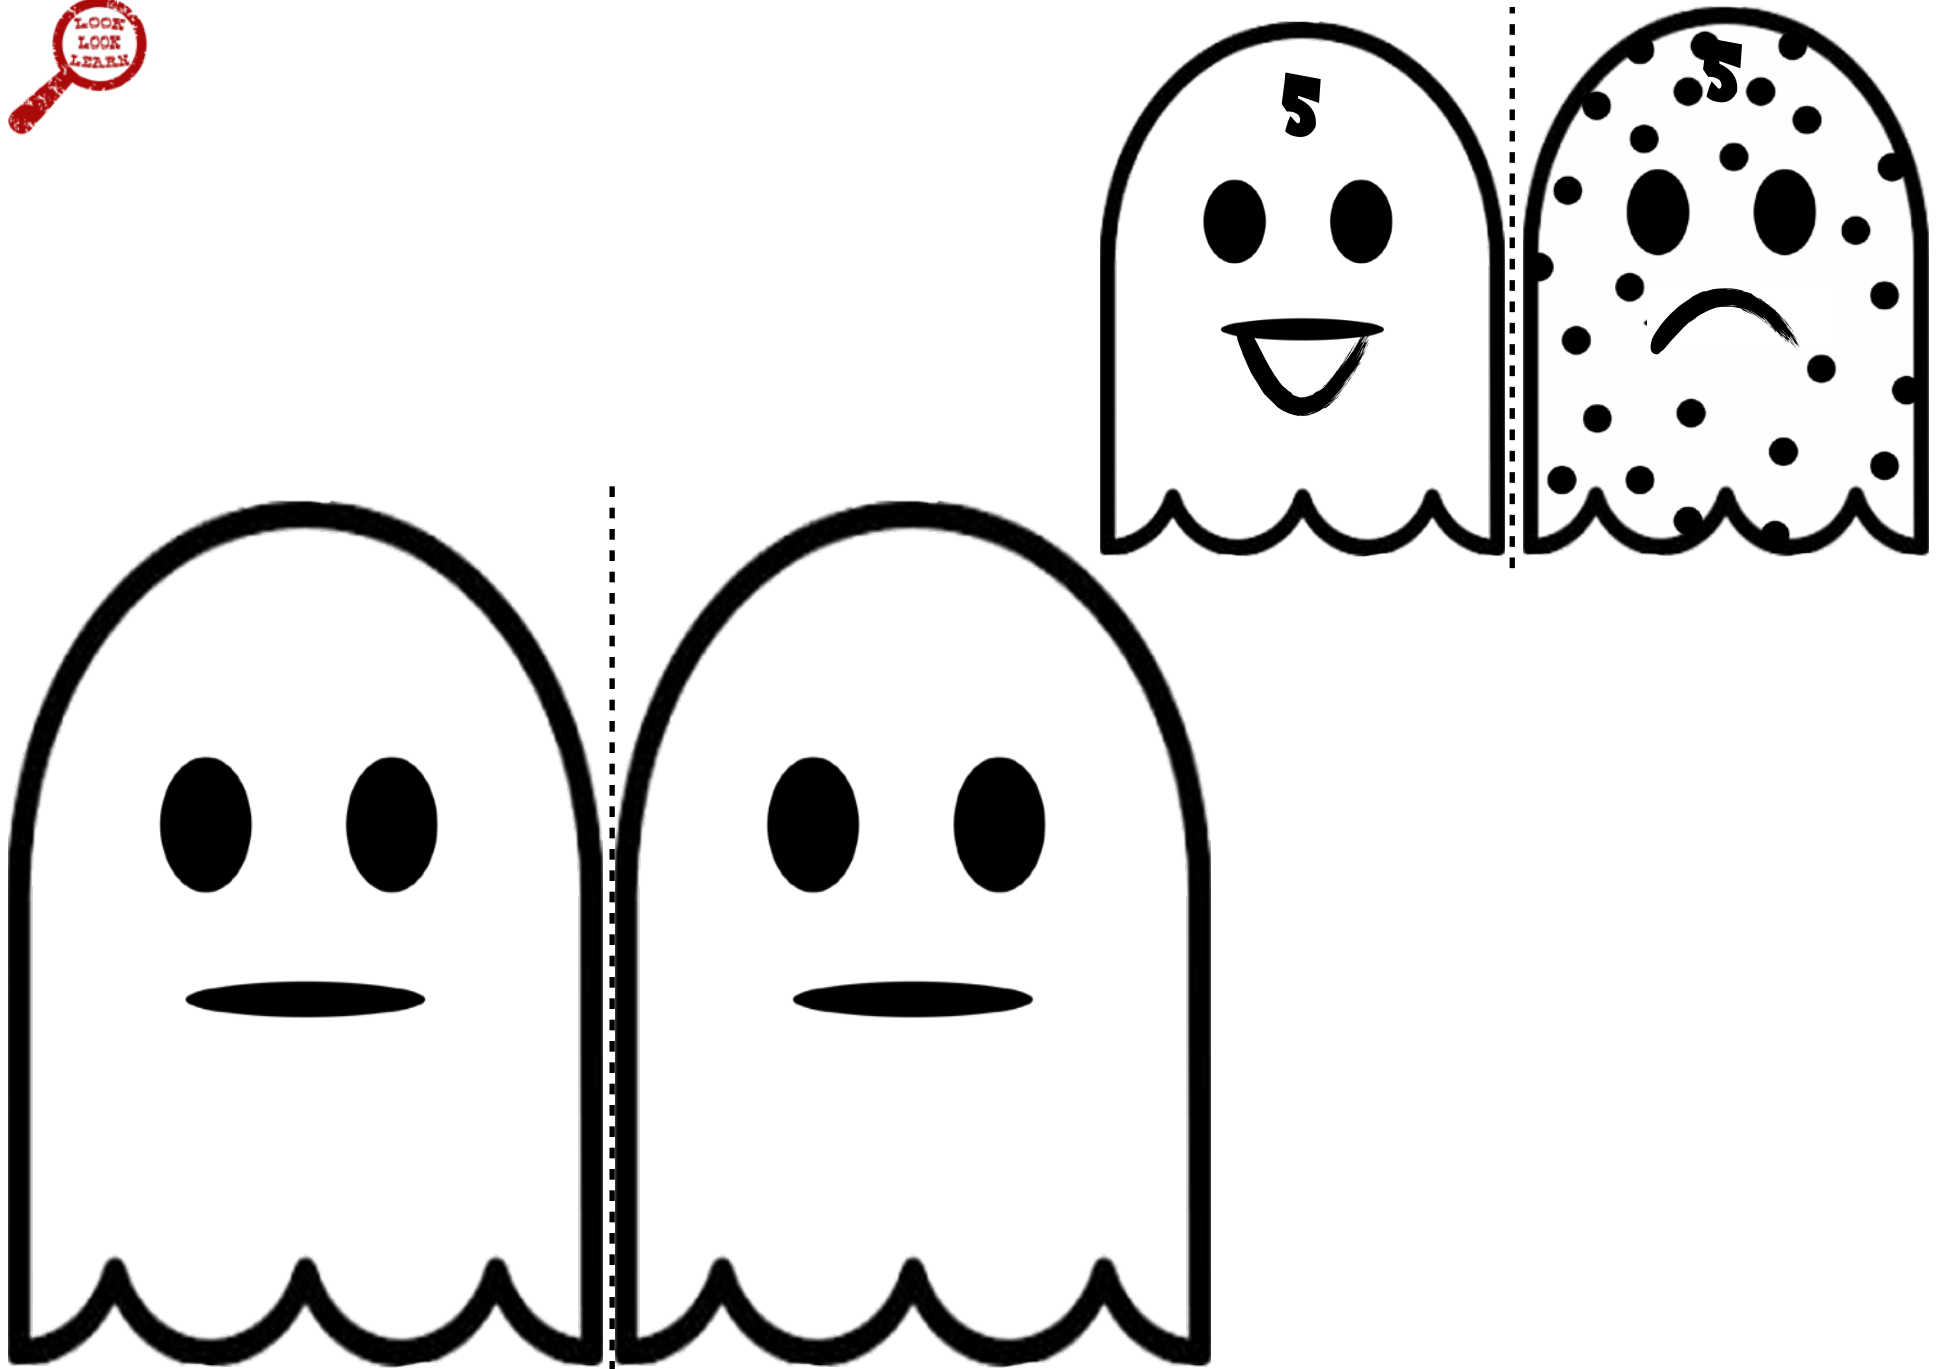

The fourth white ghost felt hungry in his tummy
Had some red strawberry, boy it was yummy.
She turned all red and ran around the house
Hid behind the door; quiet as a mouse. (shhhhhh...)

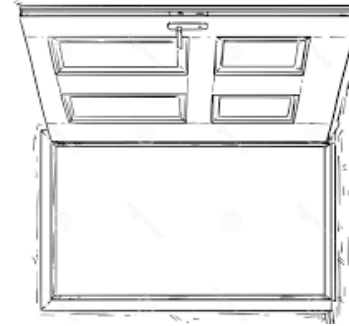

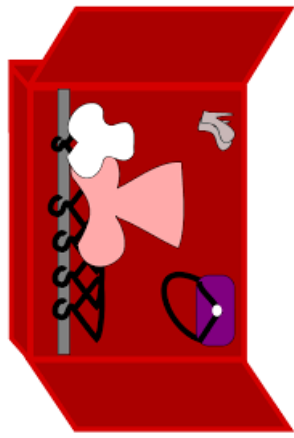

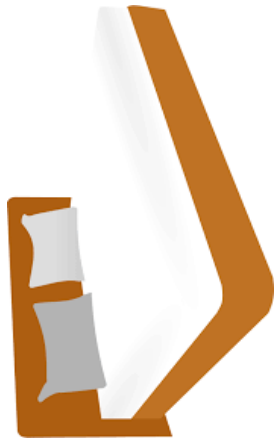

The fifth white ghost felt hungry in his tummy
Chocolate chip ice cream! Boy it was yummy.
Chocolate chip dots! And ran around the house
Hid in the bathtub; quiet as a mouse. (shhhhhh...)

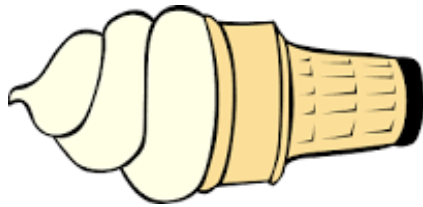

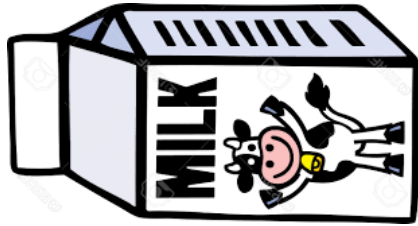

Daddy came home, and what did he see?
No little ghosts, where could they be? [pause]
The bed! The closet! The door and tub!
They were different colors, what had they done?

He called the doctor, and put them to bed
Fed them white food, not green, purple, red.
No chocolate chip ice cream or orange food
Ready for Halloween, now we’re all good!

Happy Halloween
