The Covenant of the Realized Grail

“the second journal of the trilogy of the realized grail”

This journal is the epistle of the life and legacy of the eternal being the human kind came to call, the Magdalena.

She was the realized “tour de force” of the Grace of Divinity sent to hold complete the one true thread of knowledge.

The thread of truth necessary to ensure the woven tapestry of awareness would remain hidden in the memory of the “once and future kings.

Section One

The Mary called, The Magdalena

Now we begin the journal that brings forward the life of the Mary called the Magdalena.

I arrived in the Temple of the Stars in the land of the true Jerusalem in the time of Nero. Teberius Claudius Nero.

I served the school of Mary. I was a hand maiden in training and saw to the concerns of the one chosen to be “the Mary” who traversed the earthen plane with the Radiant Light later to be called Easa.

After the time of their ascension, I remained with the task of serving the child of the Grail; the thread of knowledge gifted to my care by the wider worlds of the Divine.

For the remainder of my supposed Earth life I served the “truth” against the crafted created lie that was growing and which could take with it the freedom of infinity.

We were in fact a remnant of the essence of the 13th factor of the original essences that came to Earth to establish the Genesis planet.

13th in that we were the true division of the first three beings sent from the Mother Star to hold eternity at bay until such time as the deceit could be recovered, harnessed and destroyed.

In my role of companion to the original essence who was the vessel for the energy of the Mary, I learned to see from the world of Spirit and to walk as one with the Spirits of the world of Divinity.

As well I was chosen to carry on the work as the vessel of the Covenant of the Grail of Divine Life sent forth to penetrate the earthen planes with the truth of Divinity.

A truth that would lie hidden and protected until such time as it was to be called forth.

The time for the calling has come.

I can now begin to talk of the things that happened and the origin of their convergence.

The words of this journal are my own transcribed now for the “Followers of Hope” so that they might once again come to stand in the Reflected Light without shadow.

Free and clear to affect their return to Divinity via the movement of Sound.

We begin now at the beginning.

As I said, I was brought to life in The Temple of the Stars in the country of the true Jerusalem.

I was among the others who came to serve.

We remained in the Temple until I was nine earth years old.

During our studies we were reminded each moment of the truths of the natural philosophy of the forces of Divinity.

We worked each moment to recognize the truth of the eternal Beings of the Workers of Cosmic Truth.

We were in constant touch with our higher knowing and via this with the essence of the Divine.

Each of us a Mary and as such we each held a vast portion of the Knowledge.

It would be this knowledge that would be essential to the task within the work of the recovery of the shadow.

My role was but yet another portion of the understanding.

The confusion later would come into being to place a veil of mystery around the intended work.

Our work of the Mary's would be continually misunderstood. This intended fauxpas would result in much lore and legends, which would enhance the carefully crafted religions.

Our understanding of the forces of Divinity had for thousands of years guided the feminine understanding of the act of the work of creation.

We were the holders of the understanding of the entrapment both in that we were to be the eventual trappers of the allowed lie and that we were aware in our mist of the existence of the origin of the deceit.

The confusion regarding the Mary's and the essence of the entire nativity, savior and the resurrection story was well placed and well planned.

To the eyes of the deceivers it seemed as if it had been their clever plot.

The vessel carrying the shadow, the instigator of much of the deceit and the armies it created, failed to understand that it was being used as a token along a grid pattern.

The veil was used to set in motion the things that would ultimately shape the illusionary world into the vehicle that would restore the prism of clear light.

Section Two

The House of the Mary's The Temple of the Stars

Until I was 9 years old I had never left the Temple.

We, the girls of the school of Mary served the older ones of our ladies.

We were given the teachings of the stars, the seasons and the wider workings of the far places.

We were taught to look inside our own individual hearts to find the truth of the Knowledge of Being.

We learned to link our thoughts to the greater Beings of the wider worlds.

It must be told here in this epistle the origin of the Mary's.

Mary came to be the destined “title” of the combined energies working to bring into existence the thread of truth that would one day unravel the “created crafted lie” of the lesser gods in their attempt to introduce entropy into the Pulse called Divinity.

There was in the country of the Somerset a small gathering of the original essences whose dedication had found its work within the reconnection to the realms of Knowing.

This small band of celestial travelers had held to the work of the 601 within the Temple of the true Jerusalem.

This true living Temple of the Stars remains constructed on the isle.

It has survived since the time of the first arrival of the essential essences as they held this place to be of sacred lore.

For some time now the planned arrival had been seen to and provided for.

The holders of the Sound of the wisdom within this work were given the title, "Mary."

It would come later to mean the Lady Lord.

We were a family of 17 sisters.

We arrived in a prism of pure light radiance that opened the path for the work to begin.

This was thousands of years after the arrival of the shadow.

It must be said here in this journal that even as the work of the deceit crossed the planes of the Earth the Magi traveled to counter the patterns of the construction so that and in order that it would not survive the trials of this revelation.

The establishment of an illuminate matrix was set in place at the beginning of the scale of time by the motion of Divine Thought.

The initial function for the Genesis planet Earth was designed to provide the stage for the discovery of the persona of the lesser gods.

There was from the inception a well organized plan for the recovery of the clarity to purify the prism.

Now there is need here for the disclosure of the vital plan.

The origin of the design of the matrix of the revival was an intricate mosaic of divine ordering.

There was never any risk to the factors of Divinity.

There was however the event of the disclosure.

The disclosure of the originator of the shadow.

It was a dual task undertaken by the Being of the 12th dimension.

The awareness of this Being was fractured to accomplish his task and provide the failsafe plan of his possible recovery.

It was a perfect rouse. The transference was completed without the knowledge of the lesser gods.

On the one part the awareness was held in perfect stasis in the place of sanctuary.

It was held there in a separate division from the remainder of the other 600. It was a necessity to ensure the perfection of the recovery.

The other part of the awareness was the destined vessel for the carrier of the shadowed infiltration.

The energy that was of the shadow came within the arrival of the original essences.

It was thought the deceit was unknown, but in truth and in fact it was never unseen.

The origin was always tracked, always known, always allowed to move along the pre-designed grid of traversing.

The Mary's were the crystal prisms of Sound designed to expose and entrap the allowed deceit.

So that the intent can be clearly understood the journal entry establishes the reason the Mary's were sent to intervene.

For millenniums the Mary's at the bequest of the Divine and assisted by the Magi have traversed the earthen planes tracking, coding and designing the dramas used to facilitate the allowed and yet controlled work of the shadow.

The work I continued was part and parcel of that plan.

During my time in the later years I was the only remaining Mary in physical form.

I did commune daily with the Radiant Light and the Mary until the time I ascended to the higher realms in their care.

There is great need here for the deeper understanding of the work of the Mary's as they moved on the bequest of Divinity.

It needs be understood that the plan for the recovery of the clarity after the exposure of the deceit was versed completely in the Divine Mind.

The framework to understand the movement of the Beings as they carried the work forward can only be completed within the knowledge of the work gone before.

Section Three

The Life and Times of the Mary known as Magdalena

My early work in this life was learning and remembering.

The memory was important in coming to understand the agenda of our given tasks for this life.

We arrived on the earthen plane in three groups.

I arrived as the last emissary through the portal via the prism of pure light radiance.

When I arrived, the others there waiting had already made timely trips from the Temple.

It was a necessity to widen our interaction with the ones of our kind already at work amongst the humankind.

We arrived each portraying different life cycles
within the life ages of the humankind.

I came as a child of 8 and it was a full Earth year before I left the Temple to travel forth with the others.

The land of our arrival was damp, and cold at times, a feature we actually never felt.

As with all our arrivals and lives spent in service to the greater good of Divinity, we moved as a fine mist.

We were never quite human enough to have all the needs of humanity.

That was the code which kept us separate and apart. We traveled across time and space within the defined quatrain of the well-laid plan of recovery.

Those of our kind who became absorbed with the humans and who had lost sight of the work,
from time to time, did take on more attributes assigned to the humankind.

There is need here to speak of these things
so that the intended reader might understand better the grander plan and the truth of the way the dramas of the earthen place came to be invoked.

These were the times of the 3,400 years of the tribunal which did lay the foundation for the beliefs of the religious dogma of the humankind and in doing so set the aperture for the arrival of the times now here.

The time of the promised recovery after millenniums has arrived.

Our movements were carefully designed to create the myths and the legends that would be used to enhance the “testament” created and used by the shadows.

It was a well spun tapestry. It began with the creation and ended with the recovery.

We were in place and the movements charted so that when at a later time the annals of history would be “preset” with the nuance of the lives referred to.

It was understood that in due time the truth would come to light and now is that due time.

If you are one of the readers following the chronicles you are searching for the truth.

The truths found in the three journals that constitute the “trilogy of the realized grail” offer the reader the thread to discover their way back.

In all the times of the earthen place, all the bits of awareness that are seeking to return to the inner rims of the Divinity have waited.

They have waited and repeated life spans seeking the time of the recovery.

Again I remind you that the time is now here.

The written stories of your prophets are the recorded myths of our creation.

These were again carefully designed to impel the humankind to follow the guise leadership of the lesser gods to incur their exposure.

The necessity here for the repetitive discourse on these facts is to bring to the fore front the truths required to awaken “the Followers of Hope” who are being prepared even now for the return.

Section Four

The Divine Plan

Now within the realms of Divinity the well laid plan was progressing as it must.

Here on the earthen plane, we the Mary's were in the throes of working the tasks before us.

As it had been designed before the incursion of the shadowed interface we each and every time had been well placed in the circle of the well intended vessel of the shadow.

There was a two fold reason for this.

First we were the watchers of the movement of the shadow and second we kept to the assigned task of being the purifiers of the prism.

All this was done without the knowledge of the one who had been chosen to carry the shadow program to the army of the foot soldiers.

There was another reason as well.

In the time of the recovery if there was to be a chance for the shadowed vessel to achieve clarified awareness and return to its origin the offerings of those nearest to it must be of the dedication as was required to establish this re-connection.

As it was our current life cycle was of great celebration, because it would be the earthen plane's first cycle of the joining of the co-terminus Being of Radiant Light and the reflected light of the Mary carrying the pattern of Divine Sound.

Until and unless the Radiant Light came into being on this plane and was received and acknowledged by the chosen carrier of the Pure Sound of Divinity the recovery could not be aligned.

There could never be the hope of the shadow being trapped and redefined.

This event had been long coming and the destination of the arrival had taken 120 light years of travel to arrive in the appointed time and place.

This Being was headed to our earthen place in the year of Leo shortly falling upon us.

It would arrive via the prism of pure light radiance.

The work of the small gathering of the original essences in the area of the Somerset country had focused on this arrival for over a thousand years.

All had been made ready and their dedication had remained, despite the efforts of the Romans to silence their knowledge.

The leader of the small band was the counter part to the vessel of shadow.

Understand they were two separate Beings,
one sent to remain the standard of cosmic knowledge and the other sent to taint that knowledge.

Both were the workers for the Divine as the shadowed vessel had taken on the role at the bequest of the charters of the well-lain plan.

He was well chosen for his ability to interface and follow his given task, but as well for the fact that his awareness held the ability to be awakened to assist in the act of voluntarily relinquishing his role as deceiver.

If this could be achieved there was the right of passage for the return.

As well it would begin the removal of all the programs the lie set into being on the earthen place.

The thread of the untruth could then be removed and the portal opened for the descendents of the original essences to return to their beginnings.

Thus the precursors for the events of this life cycle were of the utmost importance and were beginning to unfold.

My arrival was among the last point-to-point patterns necessary before the plan could begin.

It was destined that I would remain and carry to completion the restoration of the vessel set to be the Grail of the Realized Communion.

I would be the only one of the Mary's left in physical form and I would depend a great deal on the small band of followers in the country of the Somerset.

Section Five

The Knowledge Holders of the Temple of The True Jerusalem

The templates of the mystery schools of antiquities were held sacred and found intact within the songs and ballads of the roving bards and later via the scholars of the middle ages.

The all important role of the small band of wisdom keepers in the Somerset country was the establishment of the myths and stories that would come to be a part of the classical lore regarding the Grail legends.

These stories were necessary to hold a counter weight in the realm of the writings that would come to be the “testaments” of the false stories and history leading up to the creation of the rulified and dogmatic reign of religions.

Many Beings of Awareness stood their mark in the times of the dark ages and held to the belief that the greater good of Divinity would hold true to the recovery of the revelation of the lies of the shadowed beings.

The guides and teachers of those brave beings set the pace and the program for the promised return.

Within their knowledge banks lay the true memories of those of the Children of the Stars whose tasks it had been for millenniums to leave behind the track and traces for the descendants to follow.

It was to this band of wisdom keepers that the child of the Grail was taken to be taught and where she did remain until she was of an age to begin her work in earnest.

From this band later would come the protectors of the Grail whose task it was to provide the safe conduct of myself and the child and then to further devise a way of protecting the secret and divulging its contents to those of the lineage at the proper time and place.

There would be many, many intended misunderstandings of the meaning of the Grail and its conceptual value in the redemption of the descendents of the lineage of the Children of the Stars.

The true purpose lay hidden and apart waiting for the proper time and venue to come forward and in so doing vanish the lie forever.

The traditions of the natural elements of force
were at first handed down in oral tradition.
Then in due course they were written in code
and translated into many languages.

These are the hidden encoded passages left by the old keepers of the wisdom.

They are now returning to your arena and on the world stage of communication so that those with ears to hear and eyes to see can come again to know their meanings.

The teachings were held in sacred trust amongst the elders of the school of the Mary's and the teaching of the ones later called Magus who were placed in the written tale of history, but who were really of the old teachings of the wizards of the Somerset country.

The scholars among you will know the value and the merit of this underpinning.

It is the driving force of the original truth, which then became prostituted into the lie for the idealization of the forces of religion.

It was these hidden documents and understandings that became the counterpart to the "testaments" founded by the foot soldiers of the shadow.

They have lain dormant and secreted away from those whose task it was to destroy them and now in your time they are again coming into view.

This lineage was made possible by the work of the Being gifted from Divine Light and left in my care.

The small band toiled hard and took the necessary steps to achieve a place of treaty safe from the malice of the Romans as they traversed the isles.

It was this place of repose that allowed for the safe keeping of the Grail child to learn and come into the understanding of Grace.

The countenance of which would establish forever the lineage of the tapestry of the stars and in doing so forever seal the once and future kings as they traversed across the years on to the current time.

It was my task to weave this design intricately into the fabric of being and with it the foundations for the creation of the stories and legends that would become the focal points of the created history.

It is the intention of this journal to establish for the reader the understanding of the pre set history of the antiquity of the humankind.

Section Six

The Well Laid Plan of Recovery

In the times that preceded the coming of the Radiant Light to the earthen plane, the design was carefully laid to ensure the point-to-point success of the cosmic design of the recovery and resurrection for the awareness and final return of “the Followers of Hope.”

From the point of conception and therefore from the point of departure, the allowed and directed construction of the influence of the shadow had been carefully maintained and looked over.

Now the events of all the efforts of the charters of the plan have come full circle and are in position for the recovery of the Rectified Cadence necessary to ensure the resurrection and recovery of the descendants of the Children of the Stars.

Among the point-to-point vector points for the plan was the design of the reasoning mind, which was set to develop within the humankind.

The one true link for the descendants was encoded into the DNA.

It was formulated as a firing sequence designed to trigger the understanding necessary for the reasoning mind to search outside the box of the “given” vignettes allowed to be covered by the silhouette of the shadowed light.

The Sound held by the vessels carrying the energy of the Mary’s was the switch necessary to engage the sequence to prelude the recovery.

The workers of the lesser gods pinpointed their spearhead nearly 1400 years before the birth of the alleged Christ.

The drafts of history necessary to develop their illusion were orchestrated among the entourage of the lesser gods in the form of the foot soldiers of the rudiments of the illusion.

This undertaking was followed with care among the original essences, which came to develop the birth of the Genesis planet later to be called Earth.

It was a given necessity that the lesser gods never had knowledge that the elements of deceit were so precisely monitored.

It would be this initial beginning that orchestrated the entire structure of the enfoldment of the plan.

Much like a cube when unfolded becomes a cross, when retracted the cross is enfolded and all the attracted elements on its surface are entrapped and contained.

Thus was the design of the containment.

The entire function of the coup-de-tat depended on the hidden element of Divinity directing the mania via the embodiment of the Beings of Awareness sent to the earthen plane.

Again this entrapment began before the shadow was ever dispatched.

Now in the turret of these times present lies the coup-de-grace of the redemption from the illusion.

This requires the separation of the factors now influencing the lower realms of the earthen plane.

It requires the telling of the truth in a coded yet attainable verse that provides for those seekers with the ears to hear and the eyes to see the structure of the knowledge and the understanding required to access the Path Way home.

It was the placement of this intricately woven design that I bore the responsibility to see to completion.

It was held in tack in the vessel gifted from the co-terminus joining of the Sound and Radiant Light.

The vessel of the Grail was sent forth to my care and she did grow to be a woman and was looked over and seen to by the carriers of the wisdom.

Just as the Radiant Light was required to be present in this earthen era and the blending of the Sound of the Mary was necessary to provide this opening, the holographic teachings of the one true thread of the return was brought to life thus.

Within the structure of this arrival was the joining of the Radiant Light and the Reflective Sound and only after that was completed would the gifting of the vessel of the Grail be allowed to come into being.

Without this impeccable cohesive template put in place to broadcast the hidden lore the redemption would not be completed as planned.

So it was that I became the tender of the vessel that was made of Spirit entirely and I was given the right of consciousness as it moved like a fine mist across the planes of the earthen basin.

The creation of a force of protectors began with the first breath of motion and continued until she departed the earthen plane after the information was placed and held safe amongst the descendants.

To ensure that this fabric be of the deepest level of protection three of the essences of the Mary's; myself, the Mary and the Grail vessel were woven into lives in three places simultaneously.

One was as I have said the arrival of each of one of our awareness in the prism of pure reflected light.

Another was as women of rank in the small band of beings in the Somerset country and another in the far way lands of Egypt in the years after the timed death of Cleopatra VII.

Our work in Egypt had been at its zenith during the era and forward in Earth time of 2700 B.C.

We as a group left our recorded work displayed there for the recovery millenniums later.

Several of our descendants remained to repeat and repeat and bring with them each time the clues hidden along the way to eventually unlock the secrets of the hidden documents a bit at a time.

The Rosetta Stone was one of those clues fitted into the history of the era nearly 2500 years later. This was the timely work of the Magi.

Remember that the 3400 years of the tribunal provided much of the illusionary beliefs structured for the foot soldiers of the lesser gods.

This was done by the descendants of the Star families, to serve as the trap of the work of the shadowed illusion.

Much is yet to be written here about this division of the working of the Divine Mind and how it came to be postulated on the deceit of the lesser gods.

Section Seven

The True Work of the Essential Essences

The 601 essences of the Brings of Divinity that arrived on the earthen plane later to be named Earth came with explicit intent.

Even on the arrival hidden, yet exposed to the others among them was the vessel of the shadow.

It was given as his task to bring with his fractured essence the rouse of the lesser gods, that of placing a shadow of a doubt within the traverses of the Beings of Divinity.

This doubt if allowed to infiltrate in the Pulse of Divinity would introduce entropy and with it the potential of decline.

As it was the well-laid plan of Divinity was such that the error of the arrogance of the lesser gods would never come into the realms of Divine Thought.

Beings of lesser understanding have as a character flaw the arrogance of their own worth.

This was counted on by the understanding of the charters of the well-laid plan.

And to their credit, it was the factor that led to the entrapment of the coup and contained the possible entropy within the re-enfolded cube.

The task of the original essences placed on the earthen plane in their holographic form was to create the template for the Petri dish to grow the shadowed culture of the deceit.

This would provide the entrapment and containment of the complete energy and allow for the disposal of its entirety.

The events described in the first portion of the trilogy of the Realized Grail, The Other Jerusalem, tell how the Beings of Awareness of the Divine Mind did arrive and begin to create the essence of life on the planet Earth.

This journal begins the coming to bear of the hidden truth of the Grail and in doing so initiates the recovery of forever and its placement within Infinity.

As a unit of true force the Sound held within the Mary's found its path to the life and times of the era set to give birth to the constructed myths of the religious dogma of the nativity, the crucifixion and the resurrection of the multi fabricated creature called Christ.

At this same juncture in the timeline of the earthen plane the tales of the Grail were set to be deeply hidden within the memory of the descendants of the 601.

The Magi and the forever travelers, (those essences whose life force never left the earthen plane, and who traversed aiding and abiding the work), were busy tying the links of the lineage into a well-defined line of ascension.

This line of ascension would eventually see uncovered the truths hidden so long ago and the evidence of the lineage of the Grail lore.

However, it is not the earth bound narrow minded lie of any conformity to the stories of the contrived physical life of any Mary or of the Radiant Light on whose pattern was loosely based the life and times of the one called the Christ.

And within the way of the coming was held the planted memories of the stories and the legends of that would come to carry the icons of the dogmas of the structured Christian world.

Now there were structures in place so that years later when the stories had been added to and made to fit the needs of the dogma demanded by a guilt driven system of control, there would seem to be some actual premise on which it was constructed.

In the work of the Radiant Light there were in fact many miraculous events.

The stories of these events tracked across the tundra of the earthen plane.

They were recorded in two very different journals.

The one journal was the epistle of the Grail and the other was the epitaph of the lesser gods.

The pure prism light of truth had ignited a mythos.

On the one experience it was the structure for the crafted lie, an opportunity for the greatest of all fabrications.

On the other it was the direct link to the truth of the Grail.

The teachings were of the forces of the Divine.

They were given to the hearts of the descendants of the 601.

They were given to be held in a sacred trust to be hidden and protected.

It would be over 2000 years before the entire truth could come to exposure.

It was designed to be the way it came.

It was meant to be the format for the recovery.

It was the hidden key to unlock the doorway to the memory of the Spirit of Divinity.

Among the teachings was the story of the enlightened heart.

And the sustenance of the story was the life and times of the devotion to the service of the Grail.

The Grail was in fact the hidden knowledge of the understanding of the Path Way to Divine Thought.

And the teachings of the order of the Sacred Embodiment of Grace, formed from the birth of Divinity were the core elements.

There are remnants of truths in the bastion encased within the fabrication of the bathos of religion.

The contrived bathetic writings of the “testaments” of faith are basal to the regiment of the foot soldiers of the lesser gods.

However within the discourses of the tyrants of religion are the lead threads hidden and concealed that can open for the seeker the Star Lit Lantern to the Path Way by virtue of encouraging the seeker to look outside the rigid confines of the fear based guilt ridden dogma of religion.

The weaving of the threads of the great knowledge was designed to hold failsafe the truths of Divinity that would one day come into the hearts of the descendants of the Children of the Stars.

These teachings were distributed in the traveling schools of the bards and storytellers.

Much of this was infused with energy from the appearance of the Radiant Light.

The same was true of the school of the Mary and the ole schools of the wisdom hidden and away.

The teachings and philosophy spanned the width of the world.

It was passed along in the hidden orders and the philosophy began over time to be practiced in the light of the public eye.

The Jeshua or Jehoshua persona began to filter across the times and in its wake were the causalities of the ill gotten interpretation of the merits of the greater parts traded for the deception that reigned the world into the trap of fear.

In the times forth coming there will be much uncovered regarding the actual configuration of the embodiment of the created life of a single man called Jesus Christ.

It is but a mythos.

It is a combined legend contrived of many lives and many beings.

For many followers it was thought that Jesus was a completed unity of God, the father and Jesus the man.

This was but one of the personas.

Section Eight

Seeing Through The Prism Darkly

This portion of the journal relates the history of the created illusion and delineates how it placed restrictions on the humankind.

To understand the dialog one must understand that the conception from the outset of the illusion based rimmed conformity of the work of the shadowed light was to deceive.

The goal of the side of the lesser gods was forever and always the eventual introduction of entropy into the system of Divinity.

It was the true goal to set about the control to their favor of the Essence of Divinity.

Leaving nothing to chance, the Pulse of Divinity placed the efforts of the lesser gods in an ultra controlled environment.

This was without the knowing of the lesser gods.

It was unknown to them by any voice.

During the 120 years the Radiant Light traveled to the earthen plane the influence of his reflection was felt through out the regions of Earth.

The virtues of his Grace left memories and with subtlety directed the movements towards an environment of understanding and comprehension of the myths that waited to be told.

When in time the arrival was approaching the populace of Earth, both the descendants and the foot soldiers were ready for a messiah.

Thus was the stage set for the mass of ill constructed pathos of the carefully crafted lie.

The trigger of the trap was set to bring years of servitude upon the humankind.

Set as well was the hidden, but accessible Path
Way for the descendants of the 601.

For the duration of the lives of the (foot) soldiers of the lesser gods, they repeat and repeat, never questioning, never sensing there is any other option for them.

The passive patterns are used to congeal the created “way of life”, based in fear attempting to control the life patterns of the descendants as they live their lives seeking the reconnection.

The created patterns are the intrinsically designed efforts of the lesser gods as they track their shadow.

THUS THE PRISM DARKLY RESULTS....

In the other thread the resolution of the clarity of the pure light of the prism of knowledge is the core link.

The linkage is the leader thread that allows the understanding of the true return.

Now....using this formatting the awareness key laid dormant for the required time.

From the timeline of creation the elements necessary to recover were put in place.

The vestments of the Grail were designed to put within the reach of all the descendants in any lifeline the opportunity to remember.

There was as well the creation of the “survivor protectors.”

These were the divisions of the forever travelers and the partial prisms of the assigned awareness of recovery.

Over the centuries the protectors of the vessel that contained the mosaic of the true path have completed their work with great devotion.

Within the understandings of this work is the work of the purification.

Within the time of the eras since creation the dramas have driven the platforms, that both allow for the understanding of the tenets of time and as well for the notifications of the point-to-point available understandings.

For within these understandings rests the recall of the roll right template of Divinity.

This template is now in restoration and will come again into its virtue of placement and recovery.

Now within this pattern of recovery lie the answers to the questions most asked amongst the seekers of the Grail lore.

It was set thus in order to hold fail safe the recovery of the one and true thread of Divinity that has lingered in the hearts of those descendants since the original essences left the Sanctuary in the realms of the Mother Star so very long ago.

Within the times now present are the factors and the necessary understandings of the well-laid plan of evolutionary progress begun so very long ago.

Now is the time when the veil will lift and those with eyes to see and ears to hear will begin their long awaited return.

For the seekers the remaining pages in this journal will begin to lift the fog and set straight the way of the understanding so that they might begin to recover that which was lost to them for so very long now.

Here the remaining notification will bear witness to those searching the location and the clues to seek their revolution.

For those not destined to hear or see it will remain forever hidden and apart.

The timetable has been set and the players in poised place to rectify the here to fore secreted path.

Now as we continue the story will begin with the trueborn child of the Grail.

The Earthen Vessel of Communion

As a matter of reference my journal now turns to clarify the designated knowledge sent via the vessel and its encoded impact on humanity.

During the course of the times that the Radiant Light and the Mary traversed the earthen plane many auxiliary Beings of Awareness came and worked to open all venues of enlightenment.

These venues were set to accommodate the Beings of Awareness as they descended into humanity.

They would later in the appropriate time and places be activated.

This activation would be the failsafe for the information essential to align the recovery and uncover the hidden codes necessary to bring to the surface the doctrine of the Beings of Divinity.

By virtue of these cosmic travelers the unconscious memory of the descendants was provided with the manna, which was encoded into their awareness to access the knowledge necessary at the given time.

The inherent phases of this memory upload was placed in the initial networking of the traversing patterns by the Divine Minds.

It was the inosculate intellect that has from the first breath of life created the possible awakening of the Spirit of Divinity within the knowing of the Children of the Stars.

These Beings in their constant effort to return to their creative center have enabled the memory to hold to the knowledge of the actual forces at work in the dramas.

The forces of the Divine Mind have never left the knowing of the descendants here on the earthen plane.

Now there came into form during the times of the great secret a form of community that held precious the wisdom key placed in their care.

It was these societies, which formed at that moment to serve the greater good of the vessel and protected the knowledge of the Grail.

It was a community of likened minds both of a terrestrial nature and of the DNA formed of the residual essences of the original 601.

The inherit base of the nature of the understandings of the planned returned were brought to bear and in due time hidden to insure the continuation of the work at hand.

The communities did continue to hide and protect those working to ensure this eventual recovery.

The Beings of the forever travelers did as well come to be among these communities and in their care was set the curvature of the length and breath of the return.

They did in their work protect and serve the Grail until such time as she departed this earthen plane.

Then the work turned to the secrecy of the point-to-point understandings that would come into being at the due time.

They were the carriers of the hidden wisdom and have for eons seen to its care.

Many of the societies of the present day are only a “shadow” of the original work.

They have lost the connection to the original knowledge and are but present day practitioners of a code long vanished and currently misunderstood.

In the current times most are only a political puppet playing directly into the hands of the work of the shadow.

Howbeit they believe they are the keepers of a secret knowledge that puts them somehow in the role of knowing more.

It does need to be told that there are still those within the humankind who are the workers of the Beings of Awareness, who do hold the knowledge and are the keepers of the keys.

These forever travelers walk the planet life after life continuing the resonant thread of truth and weaving the tapestry of Divinity.

As well there are the workers for the shadow who have life after life been used as the foot soldiers to attempt to destroy the threads held by these communities.

Thus it was I cared for the vessel of knowledge later called the Grail child.

I did come to serve the Mary and in due time did serve as well the co-terminus being of her Divinity, The Radiant Light.

When they departed to begin the task of transferring the knowledge in the wider realm of the earthen place, I was given the gift of devotion to the one awareness selected to hold and bring forth the tidings of the truth of the things to be hidden.

The awareness of this vessel did come to the earthen plane in a prism of pure directed transference.

Therein being the nature and care of the Reflected Sound of Divinity and in its care was the truth of higher ascension.

This key was later to be believed to be the daughter of the Immaculate Conception.

Assigning that vestige to the man called Jesus and the woman called Mary then farther hid this supposed miracle.

The shadow used this opportunity to create a ticking untruth that one day might be used to influence the ones of the descendants who still carried the promise.

Many of the early secret societies did protect the actual truth behind the supposed Immaculate Conception.

The actual icon was never the birth of a man called by many names, but mostly by the title Jesus, nor the child assigned to be the mirror of the myth of Jesus, the one they pledged to my heritage.

There was a transcendence of great virtue designed to accomplish this work.

Its care was my task. It moved across the planes of the earthen place when necessary in the designated form of a young woman.

This portrayal was the effective choice to aid the protection and then later to add to the female role the necessary elevation it would require.

The rouse of the shadow was to denigrate the role of the female in the lives of the humankind.

So over the course of this earthen life I was the fulcrum of the care of and the eventual legacy of the legend of the Grail.

It was all precisely planned and well organized in terms of the path it would take and the supporters necessary to carry its message across the span of earthen time.

There were as well many communities where the old ways were practiced and held sacred.

In these places the Grail was more than a legend.

It became a way of life.

These teachings were never trusted to the written word. Rather they were oral teachings that passed from descendant to descendant.

Thus was the line of passage secured.

Section Ten

The Hidden Knowledge

As the time for the convergence traveled across the earthen place there was much to be considered.

Within the cadence of the hidden venues were the cross point-to-point vectors of the hidden wisdom.

The critical aspects of the knowledge concealed in the matrix of the stylized lines of memory are the necessary components of recovery.

The essential Being of the vessel of the Grail carried encoded within the matrix of the memory
the necessary fragments to reconstruct the prism of pure light.

The facets of the prism are the stylized lines of memory.

These lines are necessary to bring forward the curves of the fractured space.

The Grail was a memory constructed of the purest Sound available.

The decimal of the Sound within that memory is that of radiant resonance.

For the physical world the documentation of the Grail wisdom was encoded in the natural forces.

The natural forces are the links to the forces of the Divine.

(as above so below)

The equation cube of created life is encoded in the natural artifacts found within the forces of nature.

Encased within the firing sequences of the forces of nature are the hidden elements of the force of the Divine Mind.

The tenets of the wisdom schools of the old knowledge held a trust house of keys to the locks.

The locks placed on the outer rims of the Genesis equation made limited access available to the aspirations of the lesser gods.

The sequence was placed in puzzle form.

The alignment patterns are encoded planet wide.

The math forms the alchemy of the wider realms of Divinity.

It is the reliquem of the Gods.

The design of Infinity is found within the spatial frames of the knowledge within the quatrains of Sound.

The traveling bards each carried a portion of the wisdom.

Each was charged with distributing their own understanding and with it the clues for the seekers to find the rest of the anagram.

Over time this message became garbled and with that those who could not hear and see were separated from the seekers.

Now in this epic there is a resurgence of the true bards and the storytellers from the stars.

The constellations mark the resurrection of the players that are destined to establish the basket of recovery.

I prepare this journal for the ones to discover the clues and markers that lead to the reconnection.

Within the virtue lies all the superimposed real or imagined features designed to be born in the past and destined to be bred into the future.

The main reason for sending prophecies is to give notice to the fact that even before the prophecies are fulfilled, the great builders of Divinity, the creators of the Path Way, have given them as a way to survive.

This is the Key.

Moving from the ordinary requires knowing your inner beliefs.

Fear introduces one to apathy and prevents the Being from attempting greater understanding before it begins to seek it.

To reveal the truth the Being must first lift the veil of apathy.

In giving up this apathy the Being is asked to give up earth bound personal freedom to accept the immense responsibility of cosmic independence.

Within this freedom resides the ability to communicate what is true to the Being's inner source of guidance.

Touched by a transforming force and realizing a fusion of purpose the being can now understand the inherent risks of remaining unaware.

The words of this journal are the notice of the approaching twilight of humanity; where the untruths of the shadowed ethics of the lesser gods will acquiesce to the awareness of true Divinity.

These are the words of the invisible secret in the cosmic circular process of awakening.

Remember the universal and unvarying cosmic law: (No matter or force is ever destroyed, lost or comes to an end. They merely change form in the way they manifest themselves.)

Nothing ends, it simply follows a circle of change.

And the circle of the invisible secret of the cosmic circular process is one of reunion.

Reunion with Divinity for those of the once born who are by virtue of that birth descendants of the 601 Star Essences.

There exists for those with ears to hear and eyes to see, an underlying simplicity, which grips the imagination without prior need for complicated mathematical manipulations.

This is the Golden Thread, the understanding of which provides the tether for those returning.

This hidden nature (the true secreted Earth elements) perfects the memory of life everlasting.

This is the Path Way.

It is the magic hidden deep in the natural currents of the sacred language of the Mind of Divinity.

It is Universal Unified Cosmology.

Doorways for the descendants are hidden in the fusion between the terrestrial magnetic current and celestial energy.

The Golden Thread, the Residual Thread and Spiritual Engineering are the understandings of the aspects of the hidden universe.

Patterns of truth are the secret intention of all things and the way they come together to weave the Patterns of Knowing is via the Golden Thread that connects the entire descendants of the 601 with the individual Divinity.

The common link is the Golden Thread that leads to the sacredness of all life.

This understanding is made possible via the understanding of the true Earth elements.

The people of earth does not refer to the foot soldiers placed here by the lesser gods, but rather to the descendants who carry the element of earth brought from the Stars.

Using the knowledge of the elements of Earth, to inspire clear thought, the bonds of the time space continuum can be removed from the mind.

Fear is the tool of apathy and prevents the expansion of the mind.

The first step to recovery of the heritage of Divinity is the removal of fear.

Once that is done there is no inward fighting against that which you have freely chosen.

Clear thought removes the fear and provides a path of pure intent.

The reasoning mind is the preventative barrier for purified thought.

The equation of purity of mind is like a crystallized (reflected) prism of reformed energy.

Thought at its source is clear then it becomes fragmented as the reasoning mind obscures its value.

Hidden within the Grail was the understanding of the forces of the elementals fractions of the created earthen place.

To begin to understand the way to have presence over the elements of this plane is to begin to understand the values placed and hidden by the vessel of the Grail.

Now in this journal is placed the 1st steps to free the illusion of “ time and space.”

Section Eleven

The NAO of Being

The essence of the elements of the knowledge held within the Grail began with the understanding regarding Being.

A State of Grace called NAO.

NAO is the greater self.

NAO remains detached and thus the Being's awareness can "experience" the experience, without getting caught up in the emotions of the "experience."

The NAO of the awareness is the witness, seeing objectively as the life experiences are validated.

The NAO is the Narrative Awareness Objective

It is the core material of the Golden Thread embedded within the Residual Thread gifted from the Divine Mind.

It is the umbilical cord which activities the DNA of the Star embodiment as it brings into place the trajectory of the recovery.

Now remembering this, later when time transfer is offered, it is the required 1st step to rectify time and move pass its boundaries.

Only via the NAO can a Being transcend the illusionary factors of “time” and from there glide beyond the space continuum.

Once the NAO of the once born is in place there is the removal of the “NOW” that acts as blinders prohibiting the awareness that “life” in the space time continuum is merely a dream state.

As opposed to the NAO, the foot soldiers of the lesser gods are only allowed access to the NOW.

Containment to the NOW forms the basic inability to focus any thought outside the pre-described platform of conformity established by the shadow of the lesser gods.

A key feature of the NAO is creative connection.

This is the action of having no action.

It literally is the ability to bring into being via your creative thought an action with no external evidence of the action.

Thus there is no intrusion in the natural order of things.

Movement without hesitation and without interference, accomplished through the totality of oneness with the force of Divinity.

There is no conscious manipulation of the natural forces, rather unity with those forces.

The perfect harmony required for this balance is only found contained within the DNA of the descendants of the Stars.

It is the nature of the forces of Divinity.

Without this resonance there is no harmony with the nature of the Divine.

This is the decanter of the combined forces of nature with the essence of the original energy of the Star births.

All things work together in totality within a pattern of recorded vibrations.

This was the original tone set by the original movements of creation.

It is the Divine extension of a hidden power that flows through the verses of the forces of nature and is contained within a circular pattern that is the essence of the Pulse that is Divinity.

Inside this lies the realm of ultimate possibilities.

With out this knowledge of the realm of ultimate possibilities there can be no flow of the innate forces that are the key to unlocking the knowledge of the portals that surpass time and space.

This is a freedom that must be realized.

When a Being fully comes to understand that nothing or no one outside self can rule them inwardly, then and only then does the Being become truly free.

This freedom is what permits access to the higher realms of understanding and therefore the right to move beyond the illusions of the earth bound race.

Within this force is the innate ability to fashion a destiny of profound awareness.

This awareness is the wisdom of the Grail.

Within the hidden secrets of the application of wisdom lie the ways and means to shatter the hourglass of time and set the Spirit free to return to the beginning.

What then is the truth of eternal life?

Pathos is an illusion.

To recall the truth of eternal life, know that the Pathos is but a nick in the armor of awareness, nothing more.

The key to unraveling the tapestry of time is found in the complete knowing of the truth of realized awareness.

The Being must, with out a shadow of doubt,
know they are an expression of freedom across a realized pattern of Infinity.

There can be no room for doubt.

That was the deceit of the shadow of the lesser
gods.

When you see yourself moving to a destination you must begin by knowing you have already arrived.

Thus the creative connection to the realm of Divinity is linked to the knowing of the Being in the deepest heart of existence.

You begin by knowing you have already arrived.

There can be nothing in the mind to sustain a reasoning mind's pattern of spatial designs.

Unbound thought releases all interference of the reasoning mind and allows for the recovery of the innate knowledge which transcends the positioning of the time space continuum.

Thus is time liberated and unraveled.

Science and religion, destiny, the allegations of ultimate reality, and the world clock all fade from consciousness.

Leaving in their place the absolute vacuum of pure unabridged travel, via pure thought.

The destruction of illusion is complete.

Time has come and gone; banished forever by the prism of crystallized sound.

The result of the wisdom of the Grail is the re-discovery of the expression of eternity.

Exposing the truth of forever to redesign the concept of eternity into Infinity.

And through Infinity, establishing contact, creating choice and providing the recovery of the consciousness of the Grail for each of the Children of the Star Lit Lantern.

The knowledge of the Grail is positioned in the Panels of Infinity that are poised at this juncture to reflect for those seeking the way home to the stars and then to the realm of Divinity.

These are the words of this Mary.

They are here given in deep love and appreciation for this life and for all the lives I have existed across time and space.

And as well the journal is offered as a gift to those of my Being's awareness ready even now to return to the essential form of their Being.

Celebrate the wisdom of the Grail.
Celebrate the Cosmology of Divinity.

Addendum

The Cosmology of Divinity

The beginning and the end.

The alpha and the omega.

A time of knowing and a time of remembering.

These are the things placed in the construct of the Path of Divinity.

The map to this cosmology is in the journal of EPAS whose words are transcribed in “The Truth About Forever.”

There is to be found in the journeys concerning the bear and the whale, The Song of Forever and the Golden Thread of Infinity.

As well within the stories are held the equations of the Cosmology of Divinity.

The initiate's instructions regarding the map are contained in "Shattering the Hourglass of Time."

Seen to be standing in all the platelets of the construct of humanity was the essence of Divinity.

This was preserved via the journal of EPAS
transcribed by the ole woman of the Stars.

She has been since before time began the oracle used by the Being of Infinity known as EPAS.

She is the first and the last of her kind.

She is the one seed and the last seed and yet
she is only that, no more.

The Cosmology of Divinity resides within the parables of EPAS translated in her journals.

The last communion and the last mystery can be found and solved within the writings found in “
The Truth About Forever.”

It is the last book in the Grail trilogy, and yet it came first.

The sealed Wisdom Key is accessible in the tenets of “Shattering the Hourglass of Time.”

The knowledge within the tenets, for those with eyes to see and ears to hear, shares knowledge to repair and reconstruct the annals of evolution so that the separate consciousness of the unrealized tethers of the active DNA can recover that which was lost allowing for true unabridged travel back to the Infinity.

The ole woman of the Stars did hide all these tidings in her heart until the time was near and that time has come.

If you are one of the “Followers of Hope” and carry the essence of the Star Lit Lantern, you will not rest until you have read the words of the journals of EPAS.

For then indeed will you begin to spin the Golden Thread and come to unlock the secrets that carry you home to the stars.....
