

25 Questions to Ask Your Fiancé

Richard Rupp, MFT

Think you know your fiancé? See how accurate you can answer these questions about him or her. First, write down how you think he or she would answer these questions. Then ask your fiancé each question and count how many you get “right”. Get to know each other better as you listen and discuss your answers together. Make it a date—or two dates.

1. What is your fiancé’s greatest wish?
2. What is your fiancé’s greatest fear?
3. Who has been your fiancé’s greatest role model?
4. What is one of your fiancé’s greatest values?
5. What is your fiancé’s most important goal in life?
6. What is one thing your fiancé likes about himself/herself?
7. What does your fiancé feel is his or her best physical feature?
8. What did your fiancé like about you when you first met?
9. What does your fiancé feel is his or her greatest accomplishment?
10. What was your fiancé’s biggest loss in life?
11. What was your fiancé’s worst childhood experience?
12. What has been the hardest thing for your fiancé to accept about himself/herself?
13. How did your fiancé’s father influence his/her self-confidence and self-worth?

14. How did your fiancé's mother influence his/her self-confidence and self-worth?
15. What is your fiancé's idea of a perfect day?
16. What makes your fiancé feel safe and secure with you?
17. Who does your fiancé think is the sexiest looking actor or actress alive today?
18. What is your fiancé's greatest insecurity?
19. How has your fiancé's spiritual beliefs made a difference in his/her life?
20. What is your fiancé's favorite memory with you?
21. What does your fiancé believe are three keys to a healthy marriage?
22. What is your fiancé's view about being a father or mother someday?
23. What kind of low-cost or no-cost date does your fiancé most enjoy?
24. What is a little thing that you do for him or her that makes him/her feel loved?
25. What does your fiancé love to hear you say to him or her?