NEW GENERAL MANAGER NAMED AT THE OUTLET SHOPPES AT ATLANTA

Local retail executive stepping into new position

Woodstock, GA – Todd Chauvin has been named General Manager at The Outlet Shoppes at Atlanta. Todd comes to The Outlet Shoppes from Dillard’s at Perimeter Mall in Atlanta, where he was the Operations Manager for four years.

“Todd is a welcome addition as GM of The Outlet Shoppes at Atlanta,” said David C. Nelson, Senior Vice President at Horizon Group Properties, the owner and manager of The Outlet Shoppes. “Todd has spent his entire career to date in retail and brings tremendous experience in merchandising and store operations.”

In addition to his time at Dillard’s, Todd also worked at JC Penney in Slidell, LA, for 11 years, ultimately becoming the Assistant Store Manager, and was a Store Manager at Office Depot in New Orleans, LA, where he worked for ten years. “The Outlet Shoppes at Atlanta is a retail gem and dominant in the marketplace,” said Chauvin. “I am thrilled to join the management team here. We are committed to maintaining a safe, clean, open-air shopping environment and strengthening our already stellar tenant mix with the recent announcement that Purple Factory Outlet will be joining the lineup here, with much more to come in the near future.”
