ABOUT KACEY

After twenty years of research and study, Kacey created the EnQ: Energetic Intelligence™ assessment and training program for organizations and executives who want to harness their latent power and energy. Her TEDx talk "Leading with Energetic Intelligence" scratches the surface of this work, while the EnQ program is custom-tailored to each organization's gaps and goals.

Coaching since 2013 in personal development, executive leadership, and group coaching—and earning certifications in integrative therapeutic approaches—Kacey has been at the forefront of exploring innovative methods to support leadership and organizational development. Her work is where the enigmatic meets the pragmatic (or “where the woo-woo meets the To Do”), and Energetic Intelligence is a pioneer in transpersonal coaching and leadership development, a unique program that allows the realms of the profound to seamlessly converge with actionable prowess.

Alternative wellness practices organically became part of Kacey's own well-being and coaching approach, and as her clients experienced the shifts in her, they noticed transformations within themselves. Kacey realized the ripple effect that Energetic Intelligence has, and through additional training—including somatic studies, transpersonal psychology, shamanism, trauma-informed leadership, Positive Intelligence, and embodied leadership—she has worked in ceremonial, clinical, and corporate settings, serving clients in integrating this work into their leadership and organizations.

The leadership expert, Kacey Cardin, explores what we transmit
What if the most influential part of your leadership is something you've never been taught to recognize?

Kacey Cardin is redefining leadership development by exploring the often-overlooked connection between our internal state and our external impact. Through her EnQ: Energetic Intelligence™ framework, she helps leaders recognize what they bring into every interaction and how to become more intentional about the way they communicate, connect, and influence others.

Her keynotes blend leadership insight, personal reflection, storytelling, and experiential learning to make an intangible concept both accessible and actionable.

Chakralesque:

The Collective Energy Experience

Every person influences the room.

Together, we shape the culture.

90-minute to half-day team experience.

Every individual brings something into a room beyond their knowledge, skills, and expertise. They bring energy. And whether intentional or not, what we transmit influences how others communicate, collaborate, connect, and perform.

In this immersive, interactive experience, Kacey Cardin takes teams beyond traditional leadership and team-building exercises to explore the often-unseen dynamics that shape workplace culture.

Blending music, rhythm, movement, storytelling, and the principles of Energetic Intelligence™, Kacey brings the intangible concept of energy to life, helping participants experience firsthand how individual behaviors and emotional states can influence the collective.

Through engaging exercises and shared reflection, participants uncover patterns that strengthen or undermine trust, practice listening and adapting to one another, and explore how to become more intentional about the environments they create.

The experience culminates in a shared commitment to communicating, collaborating, and leading differently, turning individual awareness into collective action. This is where the woo-woo meets the To Do.

Core Takeaway: Organizational culture is shaped through everyday interactions, and everyone contributes to the experience of being part of a team.

"Kacey and her warm and open, yet bullshit-proof, approach has been one of the greatest investments in myself. I contacted her because I was ready, open, and in need of a shaman, a guiding voice. She has encouraged and challenged me to not take the 'safe' option but to know my own power and take the option that has me living at 100%. She has shown me that I can have everything I want. I am becoming more myself than ever before and I am creating a life that really fucking turns me on!"
