| ENTREPRENEUR

INKWELL ink MGMT

Nick Hutchison stands as the visionary force behind BookThinkers, a growing 7-figure marketing agency that seamlessly bridges the worlds of authors and readers. In just over 7 years, he has organically built a platform that reaches over 1,000,000 people each month. Nick's podcast, BookThinkers: Life-Changing Books, is a global top 2% show that features captivating interviews with world-class authors such as Grant Cardone, Lewis Howes, and Alex Hormozi.

Through the use of his platform, Nick has helped hundreds of authors expand their reach to hundreds of millions of readers and drive significant revenue growth as part of their book campaigns. His services include short-form video production, podcast booking and social media book reviews.

Now, Nick has dedicated his life to helping millions of readers take action on the information they learn and rise to their potential through his books, speaking, and personal brand as a whole. This was the inspiration for his new book, Rise of the Reader, where he dives into the strategies for mastering your reading habits and applying what you learn.

RISE OF THE READER

Nick Hutchison is a dynamic author and motivational speaker who specializes in transforming the insights gained from personal development into actionable results. He understands that while many people consume countless personal development books, podcasts, and attend seminars, they often struggle to implement the strategies they learn.

Nick's unique approach addresses this challenge head-on. He helps motivated professionals not just absorb information but take prioritized action, enabling them to rise to their full potential. Through his engaging presentations and insightful discussions, Nick provides practical tools and strategies to bridge the gap between knowledge and action. His sessions are designed to inspire and empower audiences to move beyond passive learning and make tangible progress toward their goals. With Nick on stage, expect a powerful combination of inspiration and actionable advice that drives real change.
