The purpose of KAZ Canine Corners dog Daycare is to provide a safe, comfortable, and interactive environment for dogs during the weekday business hours. For safety and the health of your pet and our other guests, we require all guests to comply with the following policies of our facility and services.

- 1: VACCINATIONS, all dogs must have up to date vaccinations for Rabies, DHLPP, H3N2 Canine Flu (optional) and Bordetella, these shots provide safety to all pets and caregivers.
- 2: HEALTH, all dogs need to be in good health, and owners need to notify the daycare of any changes to best accommodate your pet. Notifications need to be given immediately for any communicable diseases for proper management and communications at the daycare. IF a pet is sick and antibiotics were administered, a veterinarian release of good health will need to be provided before the pet can come back to the daycare.
- 3: BEHAVIOR, all dogs will be interviewed for group inclusion and play area placement. If resource guarding is a concern, notify the staff. Owners will certify that their dogs have not been unprovokingly aggressive. This can be a sign of health and safety concerns of your pet. PLEASE remember that this is a social environment and the play needs to be safe for all pets and caregivers.
- 4: APPLICATION FEE, all dogs must have an up to date and approved application on file before attending accompanied with a $10.00 application fee.
- 5: DAYCARE FEES, fees are based on a pass plan. Depending on the type of plan, an expiration date will accompany that plan. Additional dogs are $20/day or $10/half-day per dog.
 - Half-day: $15.00
 - Single Day: $25.00
